UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

Case no :

HOMAYOUN MAALI

V.

WILLAIM K HARRINGTON

APPELLANT MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR WRIT CERTIORARI

The appellant appeal in the timely manner the final judgement of the of the first circuit of appeal but because of important compelling reasons the appellant filling this motion to extent the time to file his petition with this honorable court and there are substantial reason exist that the appellant respectfully moves this honorable court that to extend the time for the appellant to file his petition with this honorable court to the December 12-2022 the appellant has the following hardship that compel the pro se appellant to file his motion to extend time :

- 1- The appellant family member just recently passed away this event has caused tremendous emotional suffering for the appellant as the loss of one relative does.

- 2- The appellant became sick with the covid 19 infection .

- 3- The appellant as the pro se appellant need to review hundred of pages of the first circuit court of appeal as the pro se appellant such task is tremendously cumbersome since the appellant pro se need more time.
- 4- The important issue in this appeal has nation wide impact on the right of all the citizens in this great nation and due to the importance issue and the ramification of this appeal

The appellant as the pro se appellant respectfully moves this honorable court to allow the appellant motion.

The appellant in this important case since the appeal court from the first circuit there are several hundred pages of the documents that the appellant as the pro se litigant needs more time to assemble and review, and considering the issue here very important ,since the appellee (united States trustee violated) the appellant constitutional rights and appellee coerced the pro se appellant because of discrimination to testify against himself at the bankruptcy court , this writ of certiorari is extremely since impact every citizen in this great nation who comes win contact with the united States trustee office nation wide in preservation and respect the rights of the pro se citizen nation wide ,that is why is important that this honorable court to grant such an extension in this case .

APPELLANT REQUEST FOR RELIEF :

The appellant respectfully request that the honorable court allow the appellant motion to extend time to file his petition for writ of certiorari .
