IN THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT

Ms. Michael Alford, pro se

V.

United States   /

Case No.5.16cr28-RH
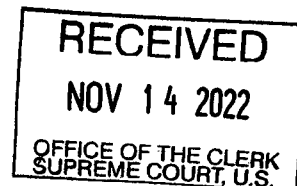

Civil No.5.19cv488-RH

Appeal No.20-12384-BB

MOTION
NOTICE OF APPEAL
AND REQUEST FOR A TIME EXTENSION

NOW COMES, Ms. Michael Alford, pro se, and motions this court for NOTICE OF APPEAL in the above case/appeal, and request for a TIME EXTENSION to file the appeal brief to this court.

With (3) appeal briefs to litigate, research new and additional evidence, prepare legal arguments and facts of each case, pre- hand write the entire brief of each, re-edit each, and re-type each of the entire briefs, using only an outdated typewriter with limited and restricted hours due to COVIT-19, lack of staff, and being on YELLOW, I request for an EXTENSION of (60 days) to file a Writ to this court.

It is also requested to be informed on whether I can file for an EXEMPT from including a copy of all the motions involved in this appeal, on the basis that I do not have enough funds to pay the extremely high dollar cost for making copies and postage. With the (2) release motions, reconsider moitons, Gov. motions and appeal motions, circuit briefs, and court responses, all consisting of more than (1000 pages) at (¢15 per copy) would cost over ($150.00) and shippment over ($50), totaling ($200.00).

By filing under pro se proceedings, I should not be required to submit a copy of the entire record of every motion involved in this appeal when all documents are available on the court's website. This appeal is critical to my innocence and failure to grant relief will cause serious undue prejudice and injuries.

1

THEREFORE, its requested for a (60 day) time extension to prepare the Writ brief, and to be informed on the exemptions on filing all documents on record in this appeal.
