PURSUANT TO RULE 22, I move this Court for an Order to compel the state of Oregon to release me from custody during the pendency of this Petition for Extraordinary Writ so I can live as a tribal elder on the Colville Indian Reservation in the state of Washington.

I base this Motion on the following facts:

1. The state of Oregon does not deny the facts nor has any defense that they substantially violated my civil rights without Due Process; and,
2. As a result of these violations, my judgment of conviction in State v, Cunningham, Washington County Circuit Court Case No. C93043CR is void.

Further, the state of Oregon has intentionally caused unnecessary delay in all court proceedings related to my writ of mandamus (Cunningham v. Fhuere, Oregon Supreme Court Case No. S069572); and,
