FRANK D. PRICE - PETITIONER

v.

ILLINOIS - RESPONDENT

RECEIVED

JUL 20 2022

OFFICE OF THE CLERK
SUPREME COURT, U.S.

PETITION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Petitioner, Frank D. Price, Pro se, comes before this Honorable Court to respectfully request an extension of time to file a petition for Writ of certiorari. In support thereof, petitioner states the following:

1. That on March 30, 2022, the Illinois Supreme Court denied petitioner's timely filed petition for leave to appeal.
2. That due to circumstances beyond, and through no fault of his own, petitioner is unable to timely file his petition for Writ of certiorari. Do to the shortage of writing supplies and staff because of the Covid pandemic there is limited line movement
3. US S. Ct has not committed to establishing law regarding extent of ex parte jurors that violate a defendant's due process rights to a fair trial.

Wherefore, petitioner prays that the court grant him an extension of time to timely file his petition for writ of certiorari.

Respectfully Submitted,
Frank D. Price
