The Honorable Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States 1 First Street NE
Washington, DC 20543

Dear Justices,

After receiving a call back from a clerk of the court, I was instructed to file this motion.

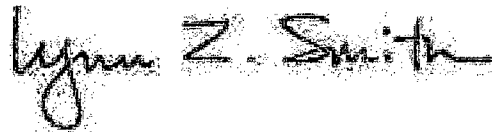

Neither my husband who assists me and has recently been diagnosed with a heart condition nor I can print the forty copies of the Writ of Certiorari. We spoke with an owner of a printing firm and the person agreed to do this for us but indicated he would need thirty (30) days to complete the printing and forward it to the court. Using borrowed funds, my husband who assists me agreed to do this.

I request an extension to file my Writ of Certiorari until Friday, January 27, 2023. This will enable me to file in the manner requested by the Court.

I was not instructed to print forty (40) copies of this motion but am printing four (4) just in case.

Thank you for your patience and consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Lynn Z. Smith". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "L" and a distinct "Z".
