Hi Mr. Taylor,

While we are not opposed to your motion to withdraw, the Court has not asked us for our position. Because the mandate has already issued, and because we did not oppose in the district court, we see no reason to affirmatively reach out to the Fifth Circuit here.

That said, if the Court asks us for our position, we will let them know that we are unopposed. Likewise, if the Court asks you for to conference with the government, you can mark us an unopposed.

Take care,

Jon

Jonathan, et al.

I filed a motion in the trial court to withdraw, which sat for 2-3 weeks and has now been transferred to the 5th Circuit. Would y'all be willing to call and/or write the 5th Circuit clerk and let them know you don't oppose it?

EXHIBIT 8

I'd surely be grateful.

Thanks,

Walt
