To the Honorable Clarence Thomas, Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and Circuit Justice for the Eleventh Circuit:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 13.5, Petitioner Aymara Sorhegui respectfully requests an extension of time of 10 days to file my Petition for Writ of Certiorari in this Court up to and including May 15, 2023.

JUDGMENT FOR WHICH REVIEW IS SOUGHT

The judgment for which review is sought is Aymara Sorhegui v. Park East Home Owners Association Inc, 3D-21-1787(Oct 19, 2022 rehearing denied January 5th 2023) (attached as Composite Exhibit 1). On January 5th 2023, the District Court of Appeal of the State of Florida denied a timely motion for rehearing en banc (Composite Exhibit 1). This means a Petition is presently due on April 4th 2023. This Court granted application a first extension up to an including today May 5, 2023. This is a request for a short ten day extension of time of filed prior to the extended deadline.

JURISDICTION

This case arises under the Fifth Amendments Due Process Clause and Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. The Court decision below do not take into account Caperton vs A.T.

---

Massey Coal Co. 556 US 868 (2009) wherein a trial judge must disqualify themselves. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1254(1).

REASONS FOR GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

Petitioner is appearing Pro Se, requires extra time to file a Petition the petition is formatted and ready for printing. The applicant has not been able to secure the 65 pound weight paper for the cover. It is under order. I have been promised that it will be delivered early next week. I was only ably to secure the 60 pound paper for inner sheets today. The 65 pound paper was not available today along with the 60 pound paper. This problem seems to be due to the scarcity of paper. No meaningful prejudice would arise from granting the extension. The mandate has already issued and is not stayed.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Petitioner requests that this Court grant an extension of 10 days, up to and including May 15, 2023, within which I may file a petition for writ of certiorari.
