FROM THIRD CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS

District Court No. 1-21-cv-00825
Third Circuit Appeal No. 22-3047

Mr. Scott Anderson, #CT-5491

1. The Petitioner, Scott Anderson, a Pennsylvania State prisoner, serving a life imprisonment sentence without the possibility of parole, hereby files the instant motion seeking an extension of time to file a petition for writ of certiorari.

2. For starters, Petitioner is unlearned in the law.

3. This very well may be his last opportunity to make his case that he is entitled to relief, where the state court abridged his right to due process where he was convicted on evidence that did not meet the statutory requirement for Second Degree murder, the crime he was convicted of.

4. Petitioner is working with a law library aide at the prison where he is housed in assisting him in preparing his petition for writ of certiorari.

5. Due to scheduling conflicts, Petitioner and the aide is in need of additional time to file his petition for certiorari in this Court.

6. Petitioner request an additional ninety (90) days in which to file his petition with this Court, and will seek to file it earlier if possible, and no more extensions of time will be needed.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott Anderson
