Re: James A. Crowe, et ux. v. Savvy, IN, LLC, No. 23-1117

Dear Mr. Harris:

I am counsel for Respondent Savvy, IN, LLC in this matter. The petition for a writ of certiorari in this case was filed on April 10, 2024, and was docketed on April 15, 2024. Respondent's brief in opposition is currently due on May 15, 2024.

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30.4, Respondent respectfully requests a 30-day extension of time in which to file a response to the petition, up to and including June 14, 2024. This is Respondent's first request for an extension of time. Good cause exists for granting the requested extension due to counsel's professional commitments in other matters in the upcoming weeks and to provide counsel with sufficient time to thoroughly review the petition and provide a response. There are no circumstances that necessitate a speedy ruling on the petition. This extension request is not sought for an improper purpose, such as harassment or unnecessary delay. Your undersigned has conferred with Petitioner's counsel, who does not oppose this requested extension.

I am not currently a member of the Supreme Court Bar, and I acknowledge that the brief in opposition must be filed by a Bar member. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Lewis Maudlin
