Re: Coinbase, Inc. v. Suski, et al., No. 23-3

Dear Mr. Harris:

I represent Respondents David Suski, Jaimee Martin, Jonas Calsbeek, and Thomas Maher in the above-referenced case. Pursuant to Rule 30.4, I write to respectfully request a 5-day extension of time for filing Respondents' brief on the merits ("Brief"). Respondents' Brief is currently due on January 17, 2024, and Respondents' ask that their deadline be extended to January 22, 2024.

Respondents' current, 30-day briefing period has included not only the Christmas and New Years holidays, but also a time in which I have been moving offices and transitioning to a new law firm. Additionally, I have been dealing with my children having the flu throughout the last week. While I have thus far done the best I can to overcome these challenges and to satisfy Respondents' default briefing deadline, I believe that my representation of Respondents could be hindered without the 5-day extension requested herein.

I have conferred with Petitioner Coinbase, Inc.'s counsel, Jessica Ellsworth, regarding Respondents' request, with the understanding that this request may shorten Petitioner's reply period by five days. Ms. Ellsworth has informed me that Petitioner will take no position on Respondents' request.

Sincerely,

s/ David J. Harris, Jr.
