Re: Jackson v. Dutra, No. 23-514 – Request for Extension of Time to File Cross-Respondents' Brief in Opposition

Dear Mr. Harris:

I represent Cross-Respondents Chris Dutra, Jason Edmonson, and Eric Dejesus in the above-captioned case in this Court.

The conditional cross-petition for a writ of certiorari was filed on November 13, 2023 and, after docketing, Cross-Respondents' brief in opposition is currently due on December 18, 2023.

Pursuant to this Court's Rules 15.3 and 30.4, Cross-Respondents respectfully request a 30-day extension of time to file a brief in opposition, to and including January 17, 2024. This is Cross-Respondents' first request for an extension. Due to preexisting professional commitments in other trial and appellate courts, the extension is necessary to allow the undersigned to prepare a brief in opposition in the manner most helpful to the Court. Additionally, the current briefing schedule overlaps a long-planned trip out of the country. Therefore, good cause exists for the requested extension.

Regards,
