DOCKET NO. 23-5366

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Ricky Alan Deephouse,

Petitioner,

v.

Wyoming,

Respondent,

MOTION FOR COUNSEL TO BE APPOINTED PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

Comes now the petitioner in the above matter hereby states as follows the petition applied for WRIT OF CERTIORARI which was denied and then applied for RECONSIDERATION OF WRIT OF CERTIORARI which has been held up twice for not complying with rule 44 which the petitioner has based of the information in the legal lexis library computer that the petitioner has access to there is clearly the some misunderstanding or misinformation based of lexis system that the petitioner has access to and the court keeps replying with letters saying the petitioner has 15 days to respond. Let the record reflect that the petitioner has met rule 44 requirements many times and the petitioner does not receive the mail from the court regarding this until 10 days after the letter is written to the petitioner. The petitioner is at unfair disadvantage due to the mail delays even with the prison mail box rule and the access of lexis is clearly not reflecting rule 44 rules as the court requires.

Therefore the petitioner is asking this court to appoint him counsel in this matter and there is good cause for such order.
