Willie Darries, Appellant

Vs

R.P. Cornelius, Appellee

United States Supreme Court

Writ of Certiorari an opportunity for a noted of a hearing

Plaintiff Willie Darries his appeal on the matter that was rendered on April 17, 2023. The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals did not abide by the law in rendering its decision. First of all, the case number that was used in this matter was incorrect. Thus depriving Plaintiff Darries out of due process and equal protection of the law. It should be noted it was not the fault of the three panel's judges who heard this case.

Plaintiff Darries request that the ruling on his case denying his appeal should be vacated for the reasons that his case has been destroyed. Plaintiff Darries states that the court have been misled, thus causing the Plaintiff Darries case be deprived of access to court.

The cruelest reason that decision by the court denying his appeal is that he have been denied a full and fair hearing on his appeal by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, because the clerk's office seen it fit to change his docket number from docket number 19-20886 to 22-20574. Plaintiff Darries states that he filed a Motion to Sanction on his appeal on the attorney that cause this problem. For this reason cited Plaintiff Darries hopes and prays that this Honorable Court reverse its decision and order the Fifth Circuit Court to grant Plaintiff Darries a hearing that he rightfully deserved under due process that he has been denied.

SUPREME COURT, U.S.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Plaintiff Darries asked this court to see case
Engle vs Berryhill Civil action Number 3-17-2185
where this court overturned said case because the Berryhill Court dismissed Plaintiff Berryhill case without determining whether Berryhill was mentally ill before dismissing his case.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Willie Darrin
