ORDER

The motion to appoint an attorney in this case is denied. The Court has no authority to appoint an attorney for a corporation in a criminal appeal. The appellant is also advised that a corporation may not appear on appeal unless it appears through counsel, Rowland v. California Men's Colony, 113 S.Ct. 716, 719 (1993). The appeal is stayed to allow the appellant to obtain the services of an attorney. If an attorney has not entered an appearance for the appellant on or before January 20, 2023, the appeal will be dismissed without further notice. Since the brief which has recently been filed in this case has not been signed by an attorney on behalf of the corporation, the brief is stricken from the record.
