

SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

SAMUEL O. ARAOYE [@U.S. Military Veteran and Naturalized U.S. Citizen, Living WithService-Connected Disabilities, and as aggravated by Respondent's actions and inactions in this matter],

Petitioner,

vs.

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, et al

Respondent.

On Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit

PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI

CERTIFICATION FOR TYPE-VOLUME LIMITATIONS REQUIRED BY Supreme Court Rules 33.1(h) and 33.1(d), CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE, AS WELL AS CERTIFICATION THAT ELECTRONIC (PDF) PETITION FOR REHEARING IS IDENTICAL TO THE TEXT IN PAPER COPIES, AND ANTI-VIRUS PROTECTION CERTIFICATION.

As required by Supreme Court Rule 33.1(h), I certify that the petition for a writ of certiorari contains 1,500 words, excluding the parts of the petition that are exempted by Supreme Court Rule 33.1(d). I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on,

This is to certify that, to the best of his ability as a Pro Se litigant (and within his physical, Medical, and psychological conditions per this matter), the Appellant-Plaintiff [Samuel O. Araoye]'s PETITION FOR REHEARING file conforms "...with the 1,500 word limitation..." as "required under Fed. R. App. P. 32(g), as well as the "type-volume limitations required by Rule 32(a)(7)(C)" Via 32(a)(7)(B), and in the same document, it is hereby certified that the text of the Appellant-Plaintiff's electronic PETITION FOR REHEARING is identical to the text in the paper copies. And that electronic copy of the aforesaid PETITION FOR REHEARING has been sent to the Appellee-Defendants via their representing Counsel by email.

Regarding protection of electronic documents against possible virus, the Appellant-Plaintiff's

PETITION FOR REHEARING is adequately protected, as scanned with up-to-date McAfee Anti-Malware Protection, as well as an additional and enhanced layer of security with Samsung Knox.

Thanks.

Sincerely,

Thanks.

Sincerely,
