Re: Martin E. O'Boyle, et al. v. Town of Gulf Stream, Florida
Supreme Court Case No. 23-61
11th Cir. Case No. 22-10865
Request for extension of time to file response to a petition for writ of certiorari

To the Clerk of the United States Supreme Court:

Pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 30, Respondent Town of Gulf Stream requests an extension of time of sixty days to file its brief in the response to Petitioners' Petition for Writ Certiorari, which was filed on July 19, 2023. The Respondent's response is currently due on August 21, 2023, and Respondent seeks a sixty-day extension up to and including Friday, October 20, 2023. The undersigned attorney for the Respondent (Hudson C. Gill, Esq.) has conferred with counsel for the Petitioners (M. Patrick Yingling, Esq.) and can advise that the Petitioners do not object to the requested extension.

The Respondent and its attorney need additional time to prepare the Town's response. One of the named partners at the undersigned's firm retired effective August 1, 2023, with the bulk of his cases being transferred to Attorney Gill. The sixty-day extension of time will allow the undersigned to better manage this transition and to complete the response brief in a timely manner. It will also allow Respondent time to properly print the brief in accordance with the Supreme Court Rules.

Very truly yours,
