Decision Below

The opinion of the United States Court of Appeals is reported as Non-Precedential.

The Appellate Statement of Jurisdiction

On January 10, 2020, the United States Court of Appeals issued a decision denying my request for corrective action under the Whistleblower Protection Act. The Supreme Court of the United States has jurisdiction to review my case in accordance with 28 U.S.C 1361 which gives the Supreme Court the action to compel an officer of the United States to Perform his Duty and for those reasons I have not made an application to the United States District Court, 28 U.S.C. 2242.

Constitutional & Statutory Provisions

The First Amendment to the United States Constitution provides, in pertinent part, that Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of speech. Furthermore, the thirteenth amendment of the U.S. Constitution states neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as punishment for a crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist in the United States, or any place subject to their Jurisdiction. In addition, the fourteenth amendment of the United States Constitution states that no state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protections of the laws.

The Whistleblower Protection Act of 1989, 5 U.S.C. 2302 (b)(8)-(9), Pub. L. 101-12 as amended, is a United States Federal Law that protects federal whistleblowers who work for the government and report the possible existence of an activity constituting a violation of any law, rule, or regulation, gross mismanagement, gross waste of funds, abuse of authority, or substantial and specific danger to public health and or safety.

Exceptional Circumstances Warrant the Exercise of the Courts Discretionary Power

The Constitution of the United States provides instructions on what is to occur if a President is removed from office, death, resignation, or inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said office. According to Article Two, Section 1, Clause 6: "Congress" must declare what officer shall then act as President, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

The exceptional circumstance that Warrants the exercise of the Courts discretionary power is that I, Tonya Knowles, am a Monarch for the United States and the United Kingdom and the 45th President of the United States, Mr. Donald Trump used Executive Order No. 13859: titled Maintaining American Leadership and Artificial Intelligence to Transfer his “Executive Power” to Artificial Intelligence. Artificial Intelligence is the Simulation of Human Intelligence processes by machine especially a computer system.

Mr. Donald Trump transferring executive power to artificial intelligence goes against a peaceful transfer of power and the US Constitution. Article II, Section 1, Clause 8 defines a peaceful transfer of power in which the Head of State takes an Oath of Office. In addition, Mr. Joe Biden, The Presidential Candidate, filed Executive Order No. 14091 in the National Archives requesting to Remove the Sovereign due to disability. The Americans with Disability act (ADA) protects people with Disabilities and the ADA defines a person with a disability as someone who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a history or record of such impairment, i.e. cancer that is in remission, or is perceived by others of having an impairment.

In addition, Joe Biden, a Presidential Candidate is approving Bills and signing them into law with the assistance of Congress. For Example, The American Rescue Plan of 2021, Public Law 117-2, The Bipartisan Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act , Public Law 117-58, Creating Helpful Incentives to Create Semiconductors (CHIPS) act, Public Law 117-167, The Inflation Reduction Act, 117-169, and the Bipartisan Safer Communities Act 117-159. Public Law: 117-159. Joe Biden has no “executive power” as a presidential candidate but he is enacting laws, rules, and regulations.

Please Note: Mr. Joe Biden has funded Wars, i.e., Ukraine has received 44.5 Billion dollars in security assistance plus an additional 43.9 Billion dollars since the beginning of Russia’s unprovoked attacks see U.S. Department of State: U.S. Security Cooperation with Ukraine (2023). Furthermore, the Title of the “Crown” has been provided to Charles III and Camilla when they were Coronated in the United Kingdom on January 06, 2023. see The Royal Family: The Coronation (2023) but it is imperative to note that the Bill of Rights of 1688 outlines the Rights, Tender and Power of the Crown.

Prohibited Personnel Practices in the federal government are employment related activities that are banned in the federal workforce because they violate the merit system through some form of employment discrimination, retaliation, improper hiring practices, or failure to adhere to laws, rules, or regulations that directly concern the merit system principle. I made protected disclosures about how the release of information department was not safeguarding, tracking and securing documents and I became the subject of ongoing repeated reprisal and egregious harassment. In a synopsis, the harassment that I was subjected to for making a disclosure was being physically hit with documents, being a suspect in police investigations on more than one occasion after I reported inappropriate behavior, being involved in an illegal psychological/psychiatric evaluation that was done without knowledge and or consent, I was poisoned with perfume and other fragrances to the point where I had to stuff my nose with Kleenex so I would not smell the fragrance, I am stalked online and followed around Bay Pines CW Bill Young Campus, I am currently the target of inappropriate sexual innuendos, I am only assigned to open, sort, and stamp mail for eight hours a day, and I am disabled from VA Health Care System. Please note that my date of termination went into effect on July 22, 2020

In reviewing the merits of an IRA appeal, the Administrative Judge must examine whether I proved by preponderant evidence<sup>1</sup> the following four elements: (1) the management official has the authority to take, recommend, or approve any personnel action. (2) the aggrieved employee made a disclosure under 5 U.S.C. 2302(b)(8) or engaged in protected activity under 5 U.S.C. 2302(b)(9); (3) the management official use his authority to take, or refuse to take, a personnel action against the aggrieved employee; and (4) the protected disclosure was a contributing factor in the agency's personnel action in the absence of the disclosures. If so, corrective action shall be ordered unless the agency established by clear and convincing evidence<sup>2</sup> that it would have taken the same personnel action in the absence of the disclosures. Schnell v. Department of the Army, 114 M.S.P.R. 83, ¶ 18 (2010); see 5 U.S.C. § 1221(e).

<sup>1</sup> Preponderant of the Evidence is that amount of relevant evidence which a reasonable person, considering the record as a whole, would accept as sufficient to find that a contested fact is more like true than untrue. 5 C.F.R. 1201.4(q)

<sup>2</sup> Clear and convincing evidence is that measure or degree of proof that produces in the mind of the trier of fact a firm belief as to the allegations sought to be established. 5 C.F.R. 1209.4(d)

I provided the Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge with fifty-one disclosures due to his Order to show cause (Appx105-155). In response to his Order to Show Cause Administrative Judge Morris found that I asserted inter alia, on or about July 26, 2016 protected disclosures to my management chain to the effect that personal identifiable information (PII) was not safeguarded in violation of, inter alia, the Privacy Act and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). By Order Dated February 14, 2019, the Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge found that I had non frivolously alleged that a disinterested observer with knowledge of the essential facts known to and readily ascertainable could reasonably conclude that the agency's actions evidenced wrongdoing as defined by the WPA. The Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge further found that the disclosure was raised before OSC (Appx156-163).

The agency has not disputed that I made a protected disclosure. A "personnel action" is defined as follows: (i) an appointment; (ii) a promotion; (iii) an action under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 75 or other disciplinary or other corrective action; (iv) a detail, transfer, or reassignment; (v) a reinstatement; (vi) a restoration; (vii) a reemployment; (viii) a performance evaluation under 5 U.S.C. Chapter 43; (ix) a decision concerning pay, benefits, or awards, or concerning education or training if the education or training may reasonably be expected to lead to an appointment, promotion, performance evaluation, or other personnel action; (x) a decision to order psychiatric testing or examination; (xi) the implementation or enforcement of any nondisclosure policy, form, or agreement and (xii) any other significant change in duties, responsibilities, or working conditions. 5 U.S.C. 2302(a)(2)(A); Mattil v. Department of State, 118 M.S.P.R. 662, 14 (2012). Here it is undisputed that the agency twice suspended me (in 2017 and 2018), issued two information security violation memoranda (in January and February 2017), and proposed my removal (in June 2018). The record reflects that the Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge found that these actions all qualify as "personnel actions" under the WPA (Appx157-160).

I may demonstrate that a disclosure was a contributing factor in a personnel action through circumstantial evidence, such as evidence that the official taking the personnel action knew of the disclosure, and that the personnel action occurred within a period of time such that a reasonable person could conclude that the disclosure was a contributing factor in the personnel action, also known as the "knowledge/timing test." Once the knowledge/timing test has been met, the MSPB Administrative Judge must find that I have established that my protected whistleblowing activity was a contributing factor in the personnel action at issue, even if, after a complete analysis of all of the evidence, a reasonable fact finder could not conclude that the appellant's whistleblowing was a contributing factor in the personnel action. See, e.g. Schnell v. Department of the Army, 114 M.S.P.R. 83, 21 (2010).

To satisfy the "knowledge/timing test, I need only demonstrate that the fact of, not necessarily the content of, the protected disclosure was one of the factors that tended to affect the personnel action in any way. See Rubendall v. Department of Health and Human Services, 101 M.S.P.R. 59, 11 (2006). The record reflects that the Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge Jeffrey S. Morris has stated that all of the agency's actions occurred within approximately one year of my protected disclosures and I met the burden of proving the contributing factor. (Appx161-162)

Standard of Review

The questions posed by this issue is a mixed case of law and fact. I have not argued that the Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge failed to get the facts right, just that they misapplied the facts of the law. As such, I am requesting that this Court review this case de novo. Szwak v. Earwood, 592 F. 3d 664, 668 (Fed Cir. 2009).

Argument

The agency has not shown by clear and convincing evidence that it would have taken the personnel actions absent my protected disclosures. If the agency does not dispute that whistleblowing contributed to the agency decision to take adverse personnel actions against an employee, the agency must prove it would have taken the same action absent the whistleblowing. See 5 U.S.C. 1221 (e)(2). In determining whether an agency has met its burden of clear and convincing evidence that it would have taken the same personnel action in the absence of whistleblowing the following factors (the "Carr Factors") should be considered (1) the strength of the agency's evidence in support of its personnel action; (2) the existence and strength of any motive to retaliate on the part of the agency officials who were involved in the decision; and (3) any evidence that the agency takes similar actions against employees who are not whistleblowers but who are otherwise similarly situated. See Whitmore, 680 F. 3d at 1365; Carr v. Social Security Administration, 185 F. 3d 1313, 1318 (Fed. Cir. 1999).

In respect to the first Carr Factor, The Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge erred in finding that the strength of the agency's evidence supports its personnel action. I made protected disclosures in which I alleged that the release of information department was not safeguarding and securing patient information according to protocol, there was no tracking system to account for first and third-party authorization forms, and the release of information department was hostile. After, I made a disclosure I was subjected to ongoing egregious reprisal by my co-workers and my direct chain of command to include Ms. Rosa Sly (Release of Information Supervisor), Ms. Donna Griffin Hall (Chief, Business Office Service) and Ms. Kristina Brown (Deputy Director). The information that I disclosed was what I reasonably believed evidenced a violation of a law, rule, and regulation and once I made a protected disclosure I was investigated, although my co-workers, and management were all subject to investigation due to my protected disclosures. See Russell v. Department of Justice, 76 M.S.P.R. 317 (1997) (investigations of the employee were initiated by the agency because of allegations made by two subjects of the protected disclosures).

Furthermore, the individuals that I made protected disclosures against provided me with adverse personnel actions and requested ongoing investigations. The board has no discretion to affirm a penalty tainted in illegal reprisal, even if the agency's penalty might otherwise have been reasonable. See 5 U.S.C. 7701(c)(2)(B); Sullivan v. Dep't of the Navy, 720 F. 2d 1266, 1278 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (Nies., J., concurring). In an adverse action proceeding the merits cannot be the determinative factor that there was no reprisal. A meritorious adverse action must be set aside where there is reprisal. If the agency fails to prove that it would have taken the same action absent whistleblowing, the Board must set aside the agency's penalty decision and order corrective action. See 5 USC 7701 (c)(2)(B).

In regard to the second Carr factor the Strength of the agency's motive to retaliate; The Business Office Service leadership team, including Ms. Donna Griffin Hall (Chief, Business Office Service) and Ms. Rosa Sly (Supervisor, Release of information) were placed on a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) dated March 14, 2016 (Appx164-175). The Performance Improvement Plan focused on areas that the Business Office Service leadership team was underperforming in as follows: For Fiscal Year 2015 the performance improvement plan focused on inadequate staffing, equipment failures, stress and morale amongst staff and reports of a hostile work environment. Fiscal Year 2016 focused on Vacant FTEE/Demand Greater than resources, equipment failures, missing request, improving hiring retention, and stress and morale amongst staff to include reports of hostile work environment. The Performance Improvement Plan also included recommendations as follows: Review and assess ROI practices and procedures, consistent monitoring and tracking and reconciliation, secure request, and use an electronic tracking system.

The Office of Inspector General (OIG) conducted a health care inspection into the delays in processing Release of Information Requests at Bay Pines VA Health Care System Report No. 16-02864-71 in May 2016 (Appx176-179). The OIG substantiated that under the Business Office Service Chief's direction, ROI Staff did not comply with VHA prioritization policy during the first quarter of FY 2015. During their inspection the OIG also found that the ROI Section workplace culture contributed to the challenges in resolving backlog and sustaining effective processes. These long-standing workplace culture challenges included medical record technicians and manager vacancies and turnover, interpersonal conflicts, lack of trust amongst staff and managers, and performance issues. The OIG recommended that the System Director ensure the: strengthening of procedures for timely processing of ROI requests, capturing and trending of complaints related to ROI requests, evaluating of personnel issues negatively impacting staff retention and hiring in the ROI section and taking appropriate action, monitoring of ROI staff productivity, and tracking and monitoring ROI request processing.

The OIG also substantiated that facility managers were unable to locate 547 hard copy ROI requests logged into ROI Plus from approximately January 2014 through June 2016. The total 547 missing authorizations affected 513 unique patients and resulted in 483 credit monitoring letters and 30 next of kin letters. The missing request led Privacy Officers to submit 10 Violation Memorandums to PSETS. From March 2015 through February 2016, the Privacy Officers Submitted 9 PSETS memoranda that accounted for 260 Missing authorizations. The OIG also found that staff members were not securing documents according to protocol. In February 2016, managers found a "stack" of requests dating back to the prior year in an employee's desk. Additionally, In May 2016 the Business Office Service (BOS) Chief learned that the supervisors tracking was "sporadic and inconsistent". In May 2017, the Business Office Service (BOS) Chief learned that the facility ROI Supervisor did not arrange ongoing quality audits at the termination of the DMS staff auditors' detail almost a year prior (June 2016).

In addition, I filed a formal complaint with the Office of Special Counsel (OSC) disclosure unit in June 2017. The complaint was filed because the release of information department was not safeguarding, securing and tracking documents according to protocol. The OSC Complaint Number is DI-17-4282 and in that complaint I was informed on September 29, 2017 that Bay Pines VA Healthcare System has begun safeguarding documents containing PHI/PII in compliance with agency regulations (Appx180-181). My effective hire date in the release of information department was April 06, 2016 (Appx182). The Office of Special Counsel (OSC) confirmed that the agency is following protocol one year and five months after my effective hire date in the release of information department. Also, On August 24, 2019 I disclosed via email to Ms. Rosa Sly that the medical records Supervisor, Mr. Dana Askew, was safeguarding my documents and his staff, and it went against the Memorandum which states that the Supervisor, Ms. Rosa Sly is to safeguard my documents. Appx102-104. April 06, 2016 was my effective hire date in the release of information department and on August 24, 2019 I made a disclosure to my immediate supervisor regarding safeguards. Three years, four months and two weeks after my effective hire date I still had complaints about how patient information was safeguarded.

I find that the Administrative Judge erred in taking an overly restrictive view of the second Carr factor. Although Ms. Rosa Sly (Release of Information Supervisor), Ms. Donna Griffin Hall (Chief-Business Office), Ms. Gina Rhodes (Information Security Officer), Ms. Devona Hollingsworth (Assistant Chief HIMS), Mr. Jonathan Benoit (Associate Director) and Ms. Kristina Brown (Deputy Director) were not directly implicated or harmed by the disclosures, my criticisms reflected on both of their capacities as management officials and employees, which is sufficient to establish a substantial retaliatory motive.

See Whitmore, 680 F.3d at 1370-71 (the appellant's criticisms cast the agency, and by implication all of the responsible officials, in a highly critical light by calling into question the propriety and honesty of their official conduct); Chambers v. Department of the Interior, 116 M.S.P.R. 17, ¶ 69 (2011) (finding motive to retaliate because the appellant's disclosures reflected on the responsible agency officials as representatives of the general institutional interests of the agency); Phillips v. Department of Transportation, 113 M.S.P.R. 73, ¶ 23 (2010) (finding that comments generally critical of the agency's leadership would reflect poorly on officials responsible for monitoring the performance of the field staff and making sure that agency regulations are carried out correctly and consistently). Accordingly, I conclude that the second Carr factor weighs significantly against a finding that the agency would have taken personnel actions against me in the absence of my whistleblowing activity.

In respect to the third Carr factor, I contended that the agency did not take similar actions against Dr. Roula Baroudi a non-whistleblower who photographed patient records after she was charged with a failure to safeguard confidential information. Dr. Baroudi photographed patient records and provided them to her attorney in preparation for trial in which she alleged retaliation, retaliatory hostile work environment and discrimination. The Pinellas County, VA Medical Center, "Bay Pines, CW Bill Young, Medical Center", became aware of those photographs which it viewed it as a potential breach of the Privacy Policy. A Privacy Investigation was conducted against Dr. Roula Baroudi in which she was alleged of violating three of the medical center policies. After consulting with Human Resources, Management officials decided to provide Dr. Baroudi with a fourteen-day suspension as penalty, but Director Suzanne Klinker reduced the fourteen-day suspension to a "seven-day suspension with pay". This "paper suspension" as the medical center calls it, was not really a suspension as the term is generally understood; Baroudi was not only paid during the suspension, she continued to work during it (Appx183-187). Our reviewing court has held that, under Carr, the requirement that comparator employees be "similarly situated" does not require "virtual identity" and that "[d]ifferences in kinds and degrees of conduct between otherwise similarly situated persons within an agency can and should be accounted for." See Whitmore, 680 F.3d at 1373. This is particularly true where, as here, there is only a single person in the record for which a comparison can be made. Dr. Baroudi is a nonwhistleblower who photographed patient records and I am a whistleblower who made a disclosure regarding how patient information is safeguarded and we are similarly situated because we both were investigated for privacy violations after reporting a failure to safeguard.

Furthermore, the record reflects that the Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge Initial Decision states that neither party presented meaningful evidence regarding the extent to which the agency may take similar action against employees who did not engage in protected activity but who are otherwise similarly situated. The Merit System Protection Board Administrative Judge erred in finding that the third Carr favored the agency because once a whistleblower shows that their protected disclosures contributed to adverse actions, the agency bears the burden of showing that it would have acted in the same way even absent any whistleblowing. 5 U.S.C. 1221 (e)(2); Miller, 842 F. 3d at 1257 (burdening the agency to prove independent causation by clear and convincing evidence). Though an agency need not introduce evidence of every Carr factor to prove its case, the "risk associated with having no evidence on the record" for a particular factor falls on the government. See Miller, 842 F. 3d 1262.

A. The Questions Presented raises Important Issues of Constitutional and Statutory Law

At issue is whether the whistleblower protection act places any limits on the authority of an agency official when an employee makes a protected disclosure or is an agency official allowed to disregard every aspect of the description whistleblower and then engage in ongoing and repeated reprisal and egregious harassment by targeting the whistleblower who is a member in a protected status which is a prohibited personnel practice solely because a whistleblower reported a violation of a law, rule, and or regulation. 5 U.S.C. 2302 (b)(8)-(9). When the United States Court of Appeals dismissed my complaint of whistleblower reprisal, they effectively ruled that whistleblower reprisal is invisible under the Whistleblower protection act of 1989, 5 U.S.C. 2302-, Pub.L. 101-12 as amended. There is a burgeoning controversy about whistleblower reprisal after an employee makes a disclosure and the practices of how agency officials have responded to whistleblower complaints.

August 01, 2023: The United States of America filed a Petition against Donald Trump Case No. 1:23-cr-00257-TSC. The charges against Donald Trump are listed as follows: Count 1: Conspiracy to Defraud the United States, Count 2: Conspiracy to Obstruct an Official Proceeding, Count 3: Conspiracy against the rights to vote and to have one's vote counted. The Defendant Donald J. Trump was the forty fifth President of the United States and a candidate for re-election in 2020. The Defendants lost the 2020 Presidential Election. Despite having lost the defendant was determined to remain in Power. So for more than two months following election day on November 3, 2020, the Defendant spread lies that there had been outcome-determinative fraud in the election and that he had actually won. These claims were false, and the Defendant knew that they were false. But the Defendant repeated and widely disseminated them anyway-to make his knowing false claims appear legitimate, create an intense national atmosphere of mistrust and anger, and erode public faith in the administration of the election. United States v. Trump, 1:23-cr-00257, (D.D.C.)
