QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

Government acknowledges that I was unaware of important facts pertaining to the case, but Government cite a case that says that even if petitioner was not aware of the facts he can still be charged with statute stating that petitioner knowingly committed a crime.

Now if petitioner did not know and was not aware then this of course shows petitioner did not have intent. Yet petitioner was charged with crime which stated with intent.

Under oath petitioner did lie because of fear and he signed since government could charge him even though the facts showed he did not know and thus did not have intent then they could do anything. After finding out it was wrong petitioner agreed to withdraw motion of guilty plea.

Petitioner has been fighting this issue since. Petitioner was not even charged on a local level because of facts that petitioner was misled and got Government still more misled & justice decided to bring this case.

RELATED CASES

The whole issue is that no local law was violated it was well understood by prosecutors that Petitioner was not aware of all the facts, that later prosecutors had to threaten some of the witnesses with jail time to find out the facts that later came to be known. In other words Petitioner, acting in good faith could not have known these facts, but a case was cited that stated that Petitioner did need to be aware of the facts yet petitioner was charged with a statute that states he knowingly and with intent committed this crime, & when paramount motive shows that Petitioner never knew the reason of or the facts until prosecutors made him aware. no intent, no knowing.

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

there is an old court ruling saying that even if defendant in ^{this} _{case}, petitioner was not aware of facts petitioner could still be charged even though charge says that petitioner must have committed offense knowingly and with intent. Paramount Notice shows this was not the case yet government and my own attorney advise to plead guilty despite the facts.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

I am not guilty, ^{not knowing person or characteristics} unknowingly I picked up a person and transported them, never knew the person. Acting in good faith. Things transcribed throughout the evening. I was not charged locally, because local prosecutors were made aware that it was mist by person, but then it was charged federally, when it cannot be charged Federally without a local crime being committed. Also it was charged with state for people who knowingly and with intent commit such heinous crimes, because old states says it did not have to know facts or characteristics of person. This old precedent that is incorrect and not applied if not government would have never been allowed to bring such a case. This is the first thing attorney should have brought up.

Other witness testified a could testify that I was unaware as was she of characteristics, yet she was released without a trial, because of that reason. Since I didn't know her, I could not track or attorney said he couldn't, but attorney didn't want to go to trial in fact that why he never showed form 13 or requested video from Wal-Mart, all minor steps that need to be done for trial preparation. My son was 12 at the time and was legally intellectually disabled at the time and he did not know either. Presented at face value there is no way this flies off the shelf.

 Vs.

Ignacio Sclardo
 Appellant

Case No. 22-2105,
 Dist/Ag docket: 2:20

 JFR-1

Petition for writ of certiorari ^{Pro Se}

Petition seeking permissive review. Today as I am writing this petition we are on lockdown. 9/20/23 6:20 p.m.

1. Question presented for review. There was no local statute violated in this case
 Appellant was charged and case dismissed because evidence proving Appellant was acting in good faith.

Federal case was pursued because of a case saying even if Appellant was not aware of what was happening then Appellant could still be charged. Even though statute clearly states that Appellant had to be aware of all circumstances and knowingly act with intent.

The facts of this case show that Appellant was not knowingly acting, but was acting in good faith with information that he was being given.

Important witnesses were allowed to withdraw or leave without any contact information (MJ). MJ was an important witness but because her testimony was not beneficial she was allowed to just disappear.

Important video information from Wal-Mart was never retrieved by attorney showing Appellant and subject matter at Wal-Mart with Appellant acting in good faith.

Form 13 was never provided to Appellant very important part of plea negotiations.

September 1, 2023 Judgement was issued on 22-2105, United V. Salcido ($2255)

This is a federal case.

Defendant/Appellant tried to withdraw plea when he found out counselor was not acting in good faith. Appellant was not allowed to withdraw plea.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

I am not guilty, nor appropriation of Justice

Many peoples lives have been affected using this old misapplied precedent that states that defendant/plaintiff in this case does not have to be aware of characteristics of person involved to be charged with knowingly and intent. In this case both precedent and statute that claim charged with are misapplied. I was not even guilty of a local crime because of circumstances involving this case got the feds turned it into something else, just cause they could. This is men sea hands down. I know a few people on this court that had such heinous allegations made against them and were never charged and if they were they would know enough not to plead guilty, but because of resources probably could have paid a good lawyer or just a lawyer
to prevent case for what it is, not what they want it to be. By the time I tried to fire my attorney and withdraw my plea, my life had changed drastically. At the time I was a father of 5 children, paying support for my children and trying to make my way through life with a Bachelor's of Accountancy. Here we are 7 years later.
Just cause something happened and we cannot use
another way to right the first.

Of course lawyers should have shown form 13
but because he knew plaintiff would go to trial
if form 13 showed I would do 10 years if I went to trial, and because he knew I would go to trial he did not show me form 13
and told me I was facing 22, lawyers mistaken and later corrected in court
this was incorrect procedure as well that was not brought up in last request to appellate court.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,
