I have to thank my Mother Conchita Sánchez, once again, for allowing me to use her Discover credit card, which I insisted many years ago for her to have, not knowing it will help in order to pay for the required huge amount of copies as well as under previous Petitions, and local District Court, as well as at the First Circuit. No matter, it seems like big corporations and corrupted governments are getting away with it, and you are still not getting tired of seeing me applying

In Forma Pauperis, many people should be suing Pro Se, due to all problems happening.

The security guards at the District Court are already asking more, because they see me entering a lot.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
