

No.
IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF UNITED STATES

ANTHONY BATLEY,
Petitioner,

vs.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
et al. Respondents

STATE OF NEVADA)
COUNTY CLARK)s

DECLARATION OF ANTHONY BATLEY

DECLARING 11-22-23 MAILING:
Timely Mailing Concerns

I, ANTHONY BATLEY, Declarant, first

duly sworn and declares;

1) That, I, Anthony Batley, the Declarant, is/are over the age 18, presently withheld from his liberties since 4-29-14, after the occurrence of a Regu-nant Verdict, that, has long violated the Implied Acquittal Doctrine and Constitutional Rights;

2) That, the Declarant's has been shown by this honorable clerk, it, promptly invoked its erroneous affirmative defenses, to purposely expressed its own bias concerning the 1st and 14th Amendments Rights, held then and now, when and now, a resubmit his timely filed Writ Of Certiorari, 11-22-23 (Notice Of Appeal Log Book, at the High Desert State Prison Law Library;

3). That, upon the Declarant receiving the Supreme Court Clerk's rejection of the timely filed pleadings and direct evidence, resubmitting this court's clerk, was provided to timely filed petition;

4). That, upon the Declarant providing the prison staff of the prison, this clerk's dismissal, Ms. Cook, staff member of the prison law library, conferred with the Notice Of Appeal Log Book, that, the pleadings were rejected on a misrepresentation and on lack of investigation, as to, the date of Notice Of Appeal by the clerk was taken, nor had the clerk inquired with prisoners' inmate account, that, would have not made easily discarded on a commonly known practices of NOT providing appellate review on the alleged constitutional violations, presented facts supported with authenticated evidences, that, were in-line with this court's prior court orders, was surely a complete denial of the standards set forth in the P.L.R.A.;

5). Ms. Cook noted to this Declarant, it could not provide this Declarant a copy of the log book, (the rejected pleadings had been in the case, custody and control...

Of prison officials, seven (7) days prior to this court's clerk 'rubber stamping' said pleading that requires this court's intervention, where where necessary can be drawn, the paying pen operates as the skeleton. No money, no judicial relief.

6). That, Mr. Cook of the prison law library, upon an inquiry from this clerk office,

Mr. Cook has agreed to promptly dismiss the clerk's rush too, also, judgment, have simply showed, it has been the court's clerk agenda, to strike down the rights of the poor and the prisoners, mainly, because of the blatant disregard for the ideal of equal treatment, does not ensure its evolving society will remain civil, especially, where the blind now sees, the very entity of government, this defendant has been instructed to grieve wrongs and violation of the Defendant's constitutional rights, as an indigent state prisoner, appears at the receiving of the Defendant's initial filing of civil rights complaints and the authenticated direct evidence, prohibiting said Defendant the relief sought in a Rule 56(c) Of Fed. R. Civ. Procedure, as so, here;

7). That, being such, the Defendant re-submits his primary time-filed Writ of Habeas Corpus, etc., while requesting (Per Mr. Cook) the prison law librarian, provides a copy of the prison Notice Of Appeal Log Book, for the date, 11-22-23 confirming the date the 'Wait' was placed into the case, custody and control of Ms. Cook, on the 22nd day of November, 2023 for mail out.

8). That, should this clerk decides to rely upon a fraud of its own, by continuing alleging, the Declarant had not filed upon this court, his Wait, prior to November 29, 2023, renders this clerk civilly liable as well as, Ms. Cook (both) of the High Desert State Prison Law Library, who has denied the Declarant's request for a copy of the log book, while additionally refusing to Notify this courts clerk, providing this clerk, the date, prison officials, took into their possession the Declarant's litigation, address to this court for mailing;

9). That, should this clerk disregard the sworn to allegations, and the direct evidence (logbook) provided upon the clerk office, through these sworn to proceedings, by phoning Ms. Cook, at (702) ^{AB}(725) 216 6789, ~~proving wrong~~ ^{proving true}, relied upon to deny access to ~~any~~ possible judicial review and there being "actual" relief available under well-established laws and decisions of past, should this courts clerk, apply their duties (contacting the prison law librarians, here at the prison, for determination of filing criminal charges) of perjury; if, this Declaration has sworn to any allegations, that, are not supported by tangible evidence, an evidence that is substantive and can not be disputed, and entitlement allowed by the constitution of the United States, means, our inner beings of those touched with poverty, uneducated and/or prisoners of this country, are commonly silenced, through unfair practices, while in the work place, rather than, the exposure of the superiority complex, ensuring relief has been [a] BIL Deal for courts and their clerks to identify any flawed of the poor, un-educated and prisoners pleadings, has the ability to express constitutional wrongs, did not afford due process, prior to assuaging the cries of the above-mentioned go unheard of, due to prisoners, the poor and uneducated, have been long targeted and maintained those social classes, to have someone without an understanding of themselves, yet, constantly offering a low self-esteem, to those who believe, there is, a system available for those who take hold of the fallacy, the (3) those body government has your best interest, until one reaches for it Social Security retirement monies -

10) That, should this clerk choose to employ those thinking procedures, that, invokes such bias behavior (imposing found on the judicial record) (allegations of a late filing, to dismiss any possibilities of the Declarant obtaining relief, while exploiting the on-going misapplication of the law by federal judges and justices to sabotage the rights of prisoners, uneducated and poor/delinquent, along with the highest reality, courts are not protecting the rights of the stated social classes, because if, such is, untrue, the clerk will re-instate the Writ and examine the criminal conduct of the Respondents and the on-going suffering and sleepless nights, caused by the prison medical department, subjected this Declarant to a modern day castration (prolonging long term use of an anti-depressant drug (Elavil), without approval of mental health, damaging the Declarant's male reproductive system, along with a clerk, lacking any concern for the Declarant's safety and welfare, while serving a prison term stemming from an Implied Acquittal, 4-29-14, case no. 253437, Dept. 20 of Eighth Judicial District Court;

11) - Thus, because the Declarant has sworn herein, prison officials had in their care, custody and control, an envelop (10x12), addressed to Supreme Court and a (4x9) envelop, containing the completion of the Writ, in which, ensures a prompt re-in-stating the pleadings herein, upon this court or its clerk's Order, to the Nevada Department of Corrections Attorney, (The State of Nevada Attorney General's Office) to provide this court's clerk, a copy of Notice of Appeal Log Book, 11-22-23, for the limited purpose of establishing, the litigation herein, was logged and given to prison law library supervisor, 11-22-23, for mailing prior to November, 29th, 2023;

DECLARANT SAYS THAT NAUGHT FURTHER

NOTE: 1-2-24

ANTHONY BAILEY - DECLARANT
SWORN under penalty of perjury
see THK 2831246