STATEMENT OF THE CASE

In August of 2023, petitioners filed a lawsuit against the Governor of the State of Washington for violating our rights. AFL-CIO v. Woodward, 406 F.2d 187 (1969). We are indigent per ~~42~~ U.S.C. § 4015. The Supreme Court denied us on November 7th, 2023, for no reason. We appeal.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

Issues of Constitutional magnitude were presented to the Supreme Court of Washington. Issues of substantial public interest were raised, including the respondent's unconstitutional weapons. Marbury v. Madison 1 U.S. 137 (1803); Byers v. U.S. 273 U.S. 28 Amend. 2. It also raised numerous other issues of constitutional magnitude such as 1st Amendment validity of outlawing bigamy, the inadequacy of our mental health system, gas prices, etc. To deny our petition without command is unacceptable. 16 Am Jur 2d, Sec 477, 2d, U.S. Constitution, currently in Section 250, 18 USC 2401, move to modify Supreme Court indigency denial. If the right to appeal has been abridged, then there is no checks or balances to the highest State Court, and that is our appeal. Therefore, this petition serves as our judicial. Therefore, this

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Oryan Austin

Date: November 4th, 23.
