

In the Indiana Supreme Court

Morice Ervin,
Appellant,

v.

State of Indiana,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals Case No.
22A-PC-2357

Trial Court Case No.
49D27-1907-PC-26686

Order

The post-conviction court issued its order denying Appellant post-conviction relief on January 4, 2022. After untimely filing his notice of appeal, and later requesting two extensions of time, Appellant's brief was due by February 13, 2023. On April 24, 2023, the Court of Appeals dismissed Appellant's appeal. The Court of Appeals denied Appellant's petition for rehearing on June 29, 2023, thus making a petition to transfer due by July 31, 2023. See Appellate Rules 25, 57(C)(2).

On November 14, 2023, Appellant filed his "Request to File Belated Motion for Transfer." In support, Appellant states: (1) he is an inmate at Wabash Valley Correctional Facility; (2) the facility experienced problems with the law library that prevented Appellant from accessing his legal materials; and (3) the delay was caused through no fault of Appellant's. Appellant contemporaneously tendered his uncorrected petition to transfer pursuant to a prior-issued notice of defect.

Appellate Rules 35(C) and 57(C), (D), and (E) provide that no extensions of time will be granted to file a petition to transfer, a brief in response to a petition to transfer, or a reply to a brief in response to a petition to transfer. Because Appellant has not shown the untimeliness was outside of his control, this is not the type of extraordinary circumstance in which the Court might otherwise consider deviating from our unambiguous rules.

Being duly advised, the Court DENIES Appellant's "Request to File Belated Motion for Transfer." This appeal is at an end.
