CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY PROVISIONS INVOLVED

“The Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex or national origin. Provisions of this civil rights act forbade discrimination on the basis of sex, as well as, race in hiring, promoting, and firing. The Act prohibited discrimination in public accommodations and federally funded programs”.

<https://www.dol.gov>

The defendants violated my civil rights since the year of 2007-until the present time. Moreover, the defendants do not qualify for immunity because they abused their positions of authority by violating rules and laws, and because they neglected to document, investigate and follow-up on the concerns and reports.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

I am being forced to handle this conflict that is of great national importance through non-criminal agencies despite it being a criminal matter. This type of corruption affects the entire nation.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

1. There's a conflict among the lower courts, police officers, social workers, and attorneys. Conservatives seem to outnumber liberals and seem to justify violating the rules and laws.
2. This conflict is of great importance and affects more individuals other than myself.

CONCLUSION

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Falastin Martin
