11 WILD CHANG et al.,

Case № 2:22-cv-02548-ODW (MARx)

12 Plaintiffs,

13 v.
14 FARMERS INSURANCE COMPANY,
15 INC. et al.,

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO DISMISS FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT [27]

16 Defendants.

17
18 I. INTRODUCTION

19 Plaintiffs Wild Chang Sr., Wild Chang Jr., and Kenneth Lo, proceeding pro se, 20 bring suit against Defendants Farmers Insurance Company, Inc. (“Farmers 21 Insurance”), Fire Insurance Exchange (“Fire Insurance”), Woolls Peer Dollinger &
22 Scher (“Woolls Peer”), and Stacy Chern for alleged violations of the Racketeer 23 Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (“RICO”). (First Am. Compl. (“FAC”), 24 ECF No. 26.) Defendants now move to dismiss Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint 25 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“Rule”) 12(b)(6). (Mot. Dismiss FAC (“Mot.”

26

27

28

1 or “Motion”), ECF No. 27.) For the following reasons, the Court GRANTS 2 Defendants’ Motion.<sup>1</sup>

3 II. BACKGROUND

4 In resolving a Rule 12(b)(6) motion, the Court takes Plaintiffs’ well-pleaded 5 factual allegations as true. Lee v. City of Los Angeles, 250 F.3d 668, 679 (9th Cir.
 6 2001). In addition, the Court may consider Plaintiffs’ exhibits to the Complaint. See 7 United States v. Ritchie, 342 F.3d 903, 908 (9th Cir. 2003) (“A court may . . . consider 8 certain materials—documents attached to the complaint, documents incorporated by 9 reference in the complaint, or matters of judicial notice—without converting [a] 10 motion to dismiss into a motion for summary judgment.”). The Court “need 11 not . . . accept as true allegations that contradict matters properly subject to judicial 12 notice or by exhibit.” Sprewell v. Golden State Warriors, 266 F.3d 979, 988 (9th Cir.
 13 2001).

14 Farmers Insurance is a corporation engaged in providing insurance. (FAC ¶ 8; 15 id. Ex. 3 (“Giles Decl.”) ¶¶ 15–16, ECF No. 26-1.) Fire Insurance is an 16 inter-insurance exchange that sells insurance policies nationwide through contracted 17 insurance agents. (Giles Decl. ¶¶ 4–6.) Chern is an agent authorized to sell insurance 18 products on behalf of Fire Insurance and other Farmers Insurance companies. (FAC 19 ¶ 10; id. Ex. 4 (“Chern Decl.”) ¶ 3, ECF No. 26-1.) Woolls Peer is a law firm and 20 counsel for Defendants in this case and a related case in state court. (See FAC ¶ 11.)

21 In April 2014, Chang Sr. and Lo purchased an insurance policy for a property in 22 Rowland Heights, California (“Property”). (See id. ¶ 24; see also id. Ex. 1 (“Evidence 23 of Property Insurance”), ECF No. 26-1.) On December 16, 2014, there was a fire 24 incident at the Property. (See FAC ¶ 28.) As described further below, the parties have 25 been litigating the loss associated with that fire since 2017.

26
 27
 28 <sup>1</sup> Having carefully considered the papers filed in connection with the Motion, the Court deemed the matter appropriate for decision without oral argument. Fed. R. Civ. P. 78; C.D. Cal. L.R. 7-15.

1       On February 16, 2017, Chang Sr. and Lo filed a complaint in Los Angeles
2 Superior Court against Farmers Insurance, Fire Insurance, and Chern, seeking relief 3 for “conventional breach of contract,” “related bad faith,” and tort causes of action.<sup>2</sup> 4 (Defs.’ Req. Judicial Notice ISO Mot. (“RJN”) Ex. 1 (“State Court Complaint”), ECF 5 No. 27-1.) On July 19, 2021, the plaintiffs amended the State Court Complaint to, as 6 relevant here, allege fraud as a cause of action and add the defendants’ counsel, 7 Woolls Peer, as a defendant. (RJN Ex. 2 (“Third Am. State Court Compl.”).) The 8 defendants demurred, and the state court sustained the demurrer in its entirety, 9 allowing the plaintiffs leave to amend only the sixth cause of action for emotional 10 distress. (See RJN Ex. 3 (“Notice of Ruling on Demurrer”).)

11       Plaintiffs then brought this civil RICO action in federal court under the theory 12 that Defendants conspired to fraudulently convert Plaintiffs’ policy with Farmers 13 Insurance into a policy with Fire Insurance and to shield Farmers Insurance from 14 liability under the policy. (Compl. ¶¶ 69–98, ECF No. 1.) After Defendants moved to 15 dismiss the Complaint, the Court found that Plaintiffs failed to timely bring their 16 RICO claims within the four-year limitations period, and the claims are thus 17 time-barred. (Mot. Dismiss Compl., ECF No. 13; Order Granting Mot. Dismiss 18 Compl. 9, ECF No. 25.) However, because Plaintiffs contended that they could allege 19 facts implicating the separate accrual rule, the Court provided Plaintiffs leave to 20 amend to allege additional facts for that purpose. (Id.)

21       Plaintiffs then filed the First Amended Complaint, alleging that Defendants 22 made misrepresentations in March 2021 for the purpose of perpetuating Defendants’ 23 RICO violations. (FAC ¶¶ 24–25.) Plaintiffs allege that Defendants made the alleged 24 misrepresentations in two declarations filed in the state court case between the parties.
25 (Id. ¶ 24.) First, Plaintiffs allege that, in the Giles Declaration, dated March 17, 2021,

27       <sup>2</sup> The Court grants Defendants’ Request for Judicial Notice and takes judicial notice of Defendants’ 28 Exhibits 1 through 6 as related filings in a state court case. See Burbank-Glendale-Pasadena Airport Auth. v. City of Burbank, 136 F.3d 1360, 1364 (9th Cir. 1998) (taking judicial notice of related court filings).

1 Defendants misrepresented that “Farmers Insurance was only a ‘Service Mark,’ when 2 selling the Insurance to Plaintiffs.” (FAC ¶ 24 (emphasis omitted); Giles Decl.)
 3 Second, Plaintiffs allege that, in the Chern Declaration, dated March 22, 2021, 4 Defendants misrepresented that Chern “was selling the Membership as an agent of 5 Fire [Insurance] all along, contrary to, and independent of, the facts that it was 6 Farmers Insurance, as a legal entity, not a mere ‘Service Mark,’ that had sold the 7 Insurance to Plaintiffs.” (FAC ¶ 24 (emphasis omitted); Chern Decl.)

8 Defendants again move to dismiss Plaintiffs’ claims on the basis that they are 9 time-barred and that Plaintiffs fail to cure this deficiency by alleging facts supporting 10 the application of the separate accrual rule. (Mot. 3.)

11 III. LEGAL STANDARD

12 A court may dismiss a complaint under Rule 12(b)(6) “based on the lack of a 13 cognizable legal theory or the absence of sufficient facts alleged under a cognizable 14 legal theory.” Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep’t, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988).
 15 To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint need only satisfy “the minimal notice 16 pleading requirements of Rule 8(a)(2)” — “a short and plain statement of the claim.”
 17 Porter v. Jones, 319 F.3d 483, 494 (9th Cir. 2003) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2)).
 18 However, the “[f]actual allegations must be enough to raise a right to relief above the 19 speculative level.” Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). That is, the 20 complaint must “contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to state a claim to 21 relief that is plausible on its face.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) 22 (internal quotation marks omitted).

23 The determination of whether a complaint satisfies the plausibility standard is a 24 “context-specific task that requires the reviewing court to draw on its judicial 25 experience and common sense.” Id. at 679. In making that determination, a court is 26 generally limited to the pleadings and must construe “[a]ll factual allegations set forth 27 in the complaint . . . as true and . . . in the light most favorable” to the plaintiff. Lee, 28 250 F.3d at 679 (9th Cir. 2001) (internal quotation marks omitted) (quoting Epstein v.

1 Wash. Energy Co., 83 F.3d 1136, 1140 (9th Cir. 1996)). Although a court must view 2 these allegations in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party, it is not required 3 to blindly accept “allegations that are merely conclusory, unwarranted deductions of 4 fact, or unreasonable inferences.” Sprewell, 266 F.3d at 988. Ultimately, there must 5 be sufficient factual allegations “to give fair notice and to enable the opposing party to 6 defend itself effectively,” and the “allegations that are taken as true must plausibly 7 suggest an entitlement to relief, such that it is not unfair to require the opposing party 8 to be subjected to the expense of discovery and continued litigation.” Starr v. Baca, 9 652 F.3d 1202, 1216 (9th Cir. 2011).

10        Although pro se pleadings are to be construed liberally, pro se litigants are “not 11        excused from knowing the most basic pleading requirements.” Am. Ass’n of 12        Naturopathic Physicians v. Hayhurst, 227 F.3d 1104, 1107 (9th Cir. 2000); see Hebbe 13        v. Pliler, 627 F.3d 338, 342 (9th Cir. 2010) (construing pro se inmate’s civil rights 14        complaint liberally). A court may not “supply essential elements of the claim that 15        were not initially pled.” Pena v. Gardner, 976 F.2d 469, 471 (9th Cir. 1992). A 16        liberal reading cannot cure the absence of such facts. Ivey v. Bd. of Regents of Univ.
17        Alaska, 673 F.2d 266, 268 (9th Cir. 1982).

IV. DISCUSSION

19 Defendants seek dismissal of Plaintiffs' RICO claims on the grounds that 20 Plaintiffs "have not pleaded facts supporting invocation of the 'separate accrual rule'" 21 and, thus, their claims are barred by the statute of limitations. (Mot. 3.)

A. Separate Accrual Rule

23        “[T]he ‘separate accrual rule,’ . . . provides that a new cause of action accrues 24 for each new and independent injury, even if the RICO violation causing the injury 25 happened more than four years before.” Grimmett v. Brown, 75 F.3d 506, 510 26 (9th Cir. 1996). For the separate accrual rule to apply, a plaintiff must identify a “new 27 overt act[]” within the limitations period, which must (1) “be a new and independent 28 act that is not merely a reaffirmation of a previous act;” and (2) “inflict new and

1 accumulating injury on the plaintiff.” Id. at 512–13 (emphasis omitted) (quoting Pace
2 Indus., Inc. v. Three Phoenix Co., 813 F.2d 234, 238 (9th Cir. 1987)).

3 Here, Plaintiffs fail to allege facts satisfying either element of the separate 4 accrual rule. Plaintiffs argue that Defendants committed independent acts violating 5 RICO in March 2021 with the Giles Declaration and the Chern Declaration.
6 (Opp’n 5.) However, each of these alleged acts are “mere[] reaffirmations 7 of . . . previous act[s].” Grimmett, 75 F.3d at 513. First, Plaintiffs contend that, via 8 the Giles Declaration, Defendants misrepresented that Farmers Insurance was only a 9 “Service Mark” when Defendants sold the relevant insurance policy to Plaintiffs in 10 April 2014 and later renewed that policy in 2016. (See FAC ¶ 24.) Second, relying on 11 the Chern Declaration, Plaintiffs contend that Defendants misrepresented that Chern 12 acted as an agent of Fire Insurance when she was actually an agent of Farmers 13 Insurance. (See id.) However, with each of these identified statements, Defendants 14 merely reaffirmed prior acts that occurred in April 2014 and 2016—that Fire 15 Insurance used the Farmers Insurance mark and that Chern acted as an agent of Fire 16 Insurance when selling and renewing the relevant insurance policy. (See FAC ¶ 24; 17 Evidence of Property Insurance.) Thus, Plaintiffs fail to allege any “new and 18 independent act that is not merely a reaffirmation of a previous act.” See Grimmett, 19 75 F.3d at 513 (emphasis omitted).

20 Moreover, Plaintiffs fail to allege that these acts “inflict[ed] new and 21 accumulating injury.” See id. Plaintiffs allege damages from the “temporary 22 accommodations during the alleged fake investigations of 14 months,” and “stroke, 23 broken ankle, heart surgeries, emotional distress” from the “unreasonable denial” of 24 Chang Sr. as an insured and “unreasonably insufficient settlement offer to cover the 25 fire damages.” (FAC ¶ 29.) Thus, Plaintiffs’ alleged injuries stem from the temporary 26 accommodations during the 14-month investigation following the fire incident on 27 December 16, 2014; Defendants’ denial of Chang Sr. as an insured; and Defendants’ 28 settlement offer for the fire damages. (See id.) Plaintiffs do not allege any “new and 1 accumulating injur[ies]" caused by Defendants' alleged misrepresentations in the 2 Giles Declaration and the Chern Declaration. See Grimmett, 75 F.3d at 513 (emphasis 3 omitted).

4 Accordingly, the Court finds that Plaintiffs fail to allege facts supporting the 5 application of the separate accrual doctrine.

6 B. Leave to Amend

7 Where a district court grants a motion to dismiss, it should generally provide 8 leave to amend unless it is clear the complaint could not be saved by any amendment.

9 See Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a); Manzarek v. St. Paul Fire & Marine Ins. Co., 519 F.3d 10 1025, 1031 (9th Cir. 2008). Thus, leave to amend "is properly denied . . . if 11 amendment would be futile." Carrico v. City & County of San Francisco, 656 F.3d 12 1002, 1008 (9th Cir. 2011). "[W]here the Plaintiff has previously been granted leave 13 to amend and has subsequently failed to add the requisite particularity to its claims, 14 the district court's discretion to deny leave to amend is particularly broad." Zucco 15 Partners, LLC v. Digimarc Corp., 552 F.3d 981, 1007 (9th Cir. 2009) (internal 16 quotation marks omitted).

17 Here, the Court concludes that leave to amend is not warranted. After finding 18 that Plaintiffs' claims were time-barred, the Court provided Plaintiffs an opportunity 19 to amend their pleadings to allege facts in support of the application of the separate 20 accrual doctrine. (Order Granting Mot. Dismiss Compl. 9.) However, as explained 21 above, Plaintiffs fail to allege such facts. Given Plaintiffs' previous opportunity to 22 cure this deficiency, Plaintiffs' failure to plead sufficient facts in the First Amended 23 Complaint indicates that further amendment would be futile. See Zucco Partners, 24 552 F.3d at 1007 (finding failure to cure pleading deficiencies is "strong indication 25 that the plaintiffs have no additional facts to plead").
