QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

1. Does Mr. Sullivan have a Constitutional Right to Court Transcripts and Medical Records dispositive to the State's theory of the case?
2. May this Court's decision in Brady v Maryland 3 73 US 83, 83 S CT 1194, 10L Ed 2d 215 (1963) Strictly prohibit the withholding of exculpatory evidence as it violates due process and what constitutes improper discovery at trial be applied retroactive to set aside the conviction in this case?
3. May this Court's decision in United Mine Workers of America, District 12 v. Illinois State Bar Association, 389 U.S. 217, 222, 19 L. Ed. 2d 426, 88 S. Ct. 353 (1967) apply to the instant case as to what constitutes proper discovery?

STATEMENT OF CASE

Comes now, Mr. Monty Dwayne Sullivan respectfully applies for Application to Justice pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 22. Mr. Sullivan requests Circuit Court Justice Kaplan.

Original Criminal Case Information:

In October of 2009, a jury found Monty Dwayne Sullivan guilty of Two Counts of First Degree Sexual Assault of a Minor under the Age of 13 a violation of Wyoming Statute Annotated § 6-2-314(a)(i) and was sentenced to two 20 to 35 year terms to run consecutive. (Appendix A1: Judgment and Sentence). Original case number CR 2009-2008.

Current Case For Review:

This Writ of Certiorari pursuant to 28 USCS 1254 is for the decision of the Wyoming Supreme Court for the “Second” Writ of Review involving Mr. Sullivan’s original “First Amendment Petition Redress Of Grievances Against 3rd Judicial Branch Of Government Natural Right To Court Transcripts and Medical Records, filed January 4, 2023. The “Second” Writ originates from Case No. CR09-8 in the 5th in the Judicial District Court Hot Springs County Thermopolis, Wyoming. With supporting documents, Mr. Sullivan is demonstrating to this Honorable Court that the documents which are sought are available to the best of Mr. Sullivan’s ability and proof at this time. (A2. Credentials of Elizabeth Reiman, Child Advocacy Project (CAP) Forensic Reviewer. A3. Review Forensic Interview of K.T. on February 10, 2009. A4. Affidavit Regarding Dr. Kurt R. Program at the University of Wyoming.) (Appendix A2,3 & 4). Date: August 22, 2023 Case Number S-23-0166.

- I. This Writ is on the judgment of case No. S-23-0166 entered on August 22nd, 2023, and received by Mr. Sullivan at Wyoming State Penitentiary on August 24, 2023, invoking the “Mailbox Rule”¹, by the Wyoming Supreme Court “Order Denying Petition for Writ of Review” by Kate M. Fox, Chief Justice. (This is the Second Writ of Review) (Appendix B1). Chief Justice Kate M. Fox states, “This matter came before the Court upon a Second Petition for Writ of Review, filed herein July 31, 2023. After a careful review of that petition, the materials attached thereto, and the file, this Court finds that the petition should be denied. It is therefore,…”
- II. Second Petition for Writ of Review (Appendix B2) asking for review pursuant to Article 5, § 10 of the Wyoming State Constitution and Rule 13.01 through 13.09 of Wyoming Rules of Appellate Procedure, W.S. § 5-2-119. Chief Justice Kate M. Fox was in a hurry to clear this case that a reply

REASON FOR GRANTING WRIT OF CERTIORARI

- I. Order Denying Petition For Writ Of Review (Second Writ) filed July 31st, 2023 Case No. S-23-0166, denied August 22, 2023, Wyoming Supreme Court, Chief Justice Kate M. Fox decision falls short of the Constitutional Standard⁴ in which Asad v. Bush, 170 Fed. Appx. 668

⁴ A substantive right of access to the courts has long been recognized. Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817, 821, 97 S. Ct. 1491, 1494, 52 L. Ed. 2d 72 (1977). Access to the courts is protected by the First Amendment right to petition for redress of grievances. Wilson v. Thompson, 593 F.2d 1375 (5th Cir. 1979).

(11th Cir. 2006); Grandbouche v. Clancy, 825 F.2d 1463, 8 Fed. R. Serv. 3d (Callaghan) 1037 (10th Cir. 1987), app. after remand, 913 F.2d 835, 17 Fed. R. Serv. 3d (Callaghan) 1042 (10th Cir. 1990).”⁵ How can Chief Justice Kate M. Fox make a decision on a filing when there is still “evidence that has never been”, Schlup v. Delo, (1965) 513 US 298, 325, 130 LEd 2d 808, 834, 115 SCt 851⁶, afforded to Mr. Sullivan? It’s easy

That right has also been found in the Fourteenth Amendment guarantees of procedural and substantive due process. Ryland v. Shapiro, 708 F.2d 967, 971-75, (5th Cir. 1983).

The first amendment right to petition for redress of grievances is "among the most precious of the liberties safeguarded by the Bill of Rights." United Mine Workers of America, District 12 v. Illinois State Bar Association, 389 U.S. 217, 222, 19 L. Ed. 2d 426, 88 S. Ct. 353 (1967); Stern v. United States Gypsum, Inc., 547 F.2d 1329, 1342 (7th Cir. 1977). There can be no doubt that the filing of a legitimate criminal complaint with local law enforcement officials constitutes an exercise of the first amendment right.

“First Amendment becomes applicable where trial court issues order compelling discovery, and party’s (sic) privilege not to disclose certain information must be balanced against relevance of evidence, necessity of receiving information sought, whether information is available from other sources, and nature of information. Grandbouche v. Clancy, 825 F.2d 1463, 8 Fed. R. Serv. 3d (Callaghan) 1037 (10th Cir. 1987), app. after remand, 913 F.2d 835, 17 Fed. R. Serv. 3d (Callaghan) 1042 (10th Cir. 1990).”

to deny a pro se litigant when the known fact that the record is not complete, simply taking a look at the 5th Judicial District Court's Docket Sheets (Appendix B6) is a quick reference to how many ways Mr. Sullivan has tried in his limited legal training to acquire these documents and have been denied. The First, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution is to protect these rights that are so easily ignored by the State Courts⁷. (Appendix B1).

II. This Second Petition for Writ of Review (Appendix B2) applies to Judge Simpson's "Order Denying Petition For Redress Grievances, Natural Right to Court Transcripts" denying petitioner's writ. Sullivan asked for a Writ of Review/Certiorari on setting out that Wyoming and the 10th Circuit Court in Denver, Colorado, has plainly adjudicated in other cases in favor of Mr. Sullivan's position. (Appendix B3).

In petitioner's previous filings even the United States District Court of Wyoming along with the 10th Circuit Court of Appeals rubber stamped these very issues by denying the Certificate of Appealability (COA) accounts, or critical physical evidence – that was not presented at trial. Schlup v. Delo, (1965) 513 US 298, 325, 130 LEd 2d 808, 834, 115 SCt 851.

⁷ "We reaffirm and reemphasize the central principle laid down in Beaulieu v. United States, 930 F.2d 805, 806-07 (CA 10 1991). Ineffective Assistance of Counsel claims should be brought in collateral proceeding, not on direct appeal...A factual record must be developed in and addressed by the district court on the first instance for effective review."

the very miscarriage of justice that Mr. Sullivan presents to this Honorable Court.

III. "Order Denying Petition For Redress Grievances, Natural Right to Court Transcripts." (Appendix B3). The 5th Judicial District Court of Hot Springs County, Thermopolis, Wyoming falls short of the Nations Standards under the "Continuing Violation" Vasquez v. Davis, 882 F.3d 1270, 1277 (10th Cir. 2018)⁸. This filing not only falls under "Constitutional Violations" but also under "Actual Innocence"(See Footnote 2 and 4 above) and has through the complete process. If

⁸ "Continuing violation" doctrine

Vasquez v. Davis, 882 F.3d 1270, 1277 (10th Cir. 2018). However, the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals "has not yet decided whether it should apply to 1983 claims." Id. Regardless, the continuing violation "doctrine is triggered by continuing unlawful acts but not by continuing damages from the initial violation." Id. (quoting Colby v. Herrick, 849 F.3d 1273, 1280 (10th Cir. 2017)). "Said another way, the continuing violation doctrine . . . would apply here only when a particular defendant allegedly committed wrongful acts within, as well as outside, the limitations period." Vasquez, 882 F.3d at 1277. (Bold Added).

"Equitable tolling of the limitations period is available when an inmate diligently pursues his claims and demonstrates that the failure to timely file was caused by extraordinary circumstances beyond his control." Coppage v. McKune, 534 F.3d 1279, 1281 (10th Cir. 2008). Equitable tolling is appropriate . . . when an adversary's conduct or other uncontrollable circumstances prevents a prisoner from timely filing, or when a prisoner actively pursues judicial remedies but files a defective pleading during{2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 25} the statutory period." Gibson v. Klinger, 232 F.3d 799, 808 (10th Cir. 2000) (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). An incarcerated litigant has a "strong burden to show specific facts to support [a] claim of extraordinary circumstances and due diligence." Yang v. Archuleta, 525 F.3d 925, 928 (10th Cir. 2008).

Appellate and Trial Counsel was not Constitutionally Ineffective the record would have been fully developed and Mr. Sullivan would not have to ask this Honorable Court to intervene.

- IV. First Amendment Petition Redress of Grievances Against 3rd Branch of Government Natural Right To Court Transcripts and Medical Records, filed January 4, 2023, Case No. CR09-8.(Appendix B4). Was laid out to walk the justice through the filing hoping that Judge Simpson would not simply take the first option out. W.S. §§ 7-14-101 through 108 (LexisNexis 2011) Five Year Statute of Limitations.
- V. First Petition of Writ of Review to the Wyoming Supreme Court Dated: June 5, 2023, Case No. S-23-0128 with Judgment and Sentence Dated February 26, 2010. (Appendix B5, a). Petitioner was under the impression that the First Amendment filing was placed under Wyoming's "deemed denied rule" Wyoming Rules of Civil/Criminal Procedure. 6(c)(2)"... the appeals court acknowledged that this rule provides for application of civil procedure rules where there is no rule of criminal procedure on point... Patrick v. State, 2005 WY 32, 108 P.3d 838, 2005 Wyo. LEXIS 35 (Wyo. 2005).

CONCLUSION

Therefore, Mr. Sullivan prays this Honorable Court will grant Mr. Sullivan this petition on the Constitutional Violations presented to this Honorable Court. Mr. Sullivan would be bold here and ask this Honorable Court to remove this conviction and allow Mr. Sullivan an 'Order' to receive all Evidentiary Documents from Hot Springs County Thermopolis, Wyoming or in alternative "Order 'Time Served' with the Evidentiary Documents" set forth so Mr. Sullivan further the Actual Innocence issue, allowing Mr. Sullivan to put forth the defense that the Constitutional Right to a Fair Trial ensures.

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted, on this 21st day of November, 2023.
