ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES, NATURAL RIGHT TO COURT TRANSCRIPTS

---

THIS MATTER came before the Court upon a Petition filed by Monty Dwayne Sullivan, wherein Petitioner asserts a grievance against the judicial branch of government and states that the "Petitioner brings this action due to the Court forcing him to state his rights under the Fourteenth Amendment of Equal Protection & Due Process." The petition asserts various constitutional principles, as Petitioner views them. This Court cannot determine how these principles apply to any request Petitioner has made or how they apply to Petitioner's assertion that he was forced to state his rights under the federal constitution. Petitioner asserts that he is entitled to transcripts for an appeal. The Court will note that Petitioner was convicted in 2009 on two counts of first-degree sexual abuse of a minor. He appealed that decision and the Wyoming Supreme Court affirmed. Petitioner later filed a petition for post-conviction relief in accordance with Wyoming Statute §§ 7-14-101 through -108 (LexisNexis 2011). The district court denied the petition and the Wyoming Supreme Court denied Mr. Sullivan's Petition for Writ of Review. Petitioner later filed a petition under Wyoming's Post-Conviction Determination of Factual Innocence Act (Factual Innocence Act), W. §§ 7-12-410 through -407. The district court denied that petition and the Wyoming Supreme Court affirmed the denial. Petition then sought a writ of habeas corpus, which was denied.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.

1. The Court understands that Petitioner has filed his Petition in accordance with Wyoming Statute Section 7-14-101, under Chapter 14, Title 7, Remedy for Violation of Constitutional Rights.
2. The statute specifies that no petition can be filed under that statute if filed more than five (5) years after the judgment of conviction. In this case, the judgment of conviction was entered in 2009. W.S. § 7-14-103(d). The Petition is not timely.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Petition is DENIED.

Dated this 11th day of July, 2023.
