STATEMENT OF THE CASE

In this case, like in Bynoe v. Baca, Reopening the decision does not risk disturbing a courts reasoned, merit-based conclusion, because there never was one.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

The merits of petitioners habeas corpus petition has never been Adjudicated on, just dismissed without prejudice. Petitioner, in his Pro se Status, unlearned in the law, Has been Attempting to get the judgment open again, because as a Pro Per during state habeas corpus proceeding, is "good cause" for a stay under Rhines v. Weber, as recently Interpreted by the Ninth Circuit in Dixon v. Baker, Supra and, the District Courts Judge told petitioner to ask for a stay under Rhines v. Weber, and then dismissed it for not having good cause.

The Ninth circuit Court of Appeals in Bynoe v. Baca, 966 F. 3d 972 (9th Cir. 2020) ("Bynoe") Has recently showed that changes in law which to Stay and Abeyance Federal Habeas Corpus petition, warranted the grant of Bynoe's Rule 60(b)(6) Motion for relief judgment, that had originally dismissed his petition for having all unexhausted claims. Based on the change of law established by Dixon v. Baker, Supra. The District Court should have granted petitioner's Motion for relief from Judgment, and issued an order to reopen the Federal Habeas Case. Petitioner was without Counsel through out his pre postconviction, and meets the first prong of Bynoe.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing reasons and law, Petitioner Jackson request that this Court grant this petition, and reopen habeas proceeding, so that his claims may be adjudicated on their merits.

The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.
