QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

When will this Court address the issue of Police Misconduct?

Why are the police allowed to lie under oath, in multiple judicial proceedings, and to young children with a finding of not "MATERIAL"?

Why are those with OFFICIAL, SOVEREIGN, ABSOLUTE Immunity not being held accountable as accessories, Principals from whom an agent of corrupt intent derives his/her authority to commit fraud on the court, undermining the integrity of the judicial process and public trust, destroying the fabric of America, ripping families apart using coercion of its youngest members?

* There is No Parent or Publicly held Company owning 10% or more of the corporations stock. (Rule 14(i)(b)(ii)) tion of time and does not extend the time for filing. See Rules 13.1 and 13.3. Filing in the Supreme Court means the actual receipt of paper documents by the Clerk; or their deposit in the United States mail, with first-class postage prepaid, on or before the final date allowed for filing; or their delivery to a third-party commercial carrier, on or before the final date allowed for filing, for delivery to the Clerk within 3 calendar days. See Rule 29.2.

4. What To File

Unless you are an inmate confined in an institution and not represented by counsel, file:

—An original and ten copies of a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and an original and 10 copies of an affidavit or declaration in support thereof. See Rule 39.

—An original and 10 copies of a petition for a writ of certiorari with an appendix consisting of a copy of the judgment or decree you are asking this Court to review including any order on rehearing, and copies of any opinions or orders by any courts or administrative agencies that have previously considered your case. See Rule 14.1(i).

—One affidavit or declaration showing that all opposing parties or their counsel have been served with a copy of the papers filed in this Court. See Rule 29.

If you are an inmate confined in an institution and not represented by counsel, you need file only the original of the motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, affidavit or declaration when needed in support of the motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, the petition for a writ of certiorari, and proof of service.

If the court below appointed counsel in the current proceeding, no affidavit or declaration is required, but the motion should cite the provision of law under which counsel was appointed, or a copy of the order of appointment should be appended to the motion. See Rule 39.1.

The attached forms may be used for the original motion, affidavit or declaration, and petition, and should be stapled together in that order. The proof of service should be included as a detached sheet, and the form provided may be used.

The Court's practice is to scan and make available on its website most filings submitted by litigants representing themselves. The Court scans petitions, motions to proceed in forma pauperis, proofs of service, and the portion of an appendix that includes relevant lower court opinions and rulings. While the Court does not scan other portions of an appendix from a pro se litigant, the entire appendix is fully a part of the Court's record and is available to the Justices.

5. Page Limitation

The petition for a writ of certiorari may not exceed 40 pages excluding the pages that precede Page 1 of the form. The documents required to be contained in the appendix to the petition do not count toward the page limit. See Rule 33.2(b).

 - STATE OF GEORGIA TORT CLAIMS ACT.

Amendments to the United States Constitution (Involved)

- (1ST) First Amendment "The right of the people to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Police entered my bedroom, behind a Closed door, after I had been drugged and passed-out. while having custodial visitation with my 7 year old daughter. My Ex-wife and police then REMOVED MY CLOTHING and REMOVED MY DAUGHTERS PANTIES and planted them next to bed. See: [Appendix B (4 page recent 911 log)]

Page 2 Comment states No pants on at 2:44 P.M. A and Officer claims "Male is 10-56 and is still on Location asleep." 14:44:30 02/14/2009 - BRICKLE, S.

page 3, first para. at 14:48:58 Standing next to officer Brickle, S. "female [ex-wife] called back hysterical wanting to get the child out of the house, was advised that THE OFFICERS WERE ON THE WAY."

Officers Pollard & Britt both arrived within one minute, and couldn't wake me, and arrest me until 4:20 P.M. finding nude with my daughter, after I had been alone? See;

[Appendix C (Newton County Sheriff's Office Warrantless Arrest Booking Affidavit)] No probable Cause hearing was ever held, No BOND OFFERED, Counsel appointed against my document refusal to prevent any defense, speedy-trial, motion to suppress, confront witnesses, subpoena witnesses in my favor, So I was compelled to testified at a trial without jurisdiction of Subject matter, due to a void charging instrument [see; Appendix D], and unconstitutional Statute as ruled upon by the Supreme Ct. of Ga. BOTH MY DAUGHTER & MY LIFE REMAIN IN GRAVE DANGER.

REASONS FOR GRANTING THE PETITION

This Writ is an appeal to this court to re-instate my Writ of Habeas Corpus 28 USC § 2254 Case No. 1:13-CV-02624 WITH it's joindered Prisoner's Civil Lawsuit

~~28~~ 42 U.S.C.S. § 1983, Case No. 1:13-CV-02625,

Appoint counsel, and investigate this case which now has evidence of an enterprise pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961-1968, as both the police and Land Lords testified along with the D.A. that the police were called immediately at 1:30 P.M., and I was arrested "within minutes" of completing a crime. ELEVEN (11) OFFICERS responded to this false crime, and Without HELP outside the ELEVENTH CIRCUIT, I'm likely to served the remainder of a LIFE Sentence, innocent and poor because of the corruption money can buy, and the failure of any review of the legality of my custody by petitioning the government for redress under my 1ST amendment right, I'm finding unenforceable as many others have found. [See; APPENDIX E].

Using a Child by lying to them, While in uniform, Saying your helping their parents - Meanwhile, preventing any pre-trial
contact (BY COURT ORDER), any post-trial contact (DIRECTLY or INDIRECTLY), and preventing any post-sentence probation contact for LIFE has accomplished what my ex-wife demanded from me pre-accusation the week prior in the hearing of the Child. The alleged Child/Victim turned 21 years old last month. (IF STILL LIVING) Do you believe she still thinks the POLICE are helping her Dad? And why doesn't she want to see her MOTHER/my ex-wife?
CONCLUSION
I PRAY THE MOST HIGH GRANT THIS, DISCHARGE &
ACQUIT, PROVIDE DAMAGES and raise up an enemy against this nation should it not repent & investigate.
The petition for a writ of certiorari should be granted.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: October 31ST, 2023

SOCIAL JUSTICE

A LAW THAT RECTIFIES INJUSTICE

IN PRISON, DEAN THOMAS BECAME A different man. He was correctly diagnosed for his mental illness and began treatment and medications. He stopped using drugs. He participated in programs meant to increase compassion, earning the nickname

"the Birdman" for rescuing birds caught in the prison's barbed-wire fence. In 2020, after he served 18 years in prison for first-degree residential burglary—and with 50 years to life remaining on his sentence—he was released.

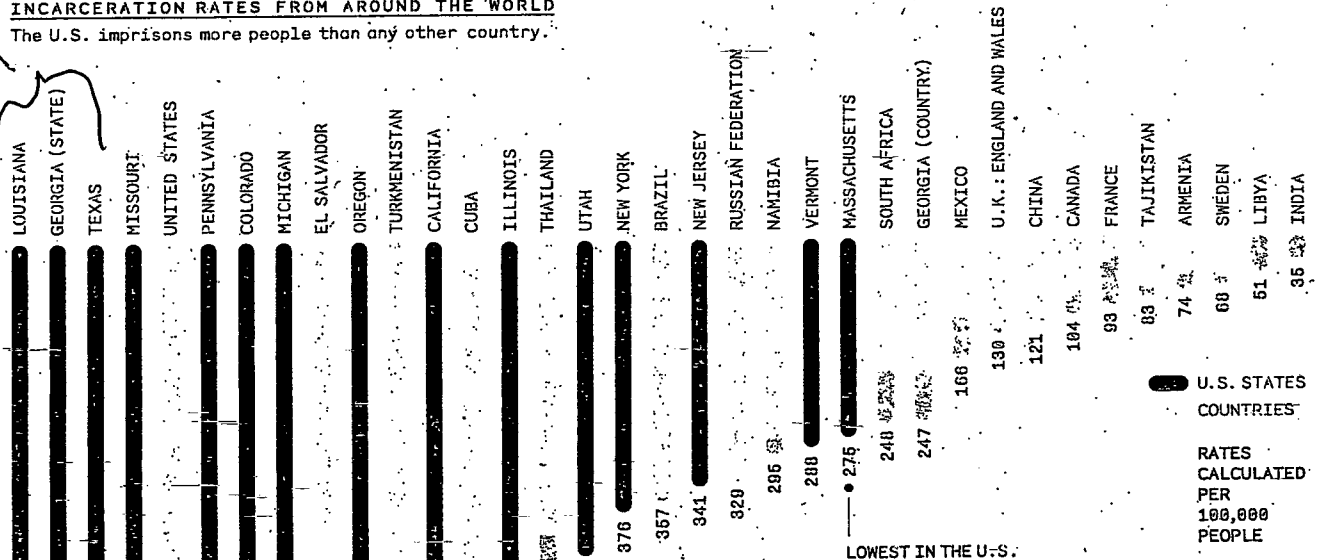

He wasn't up for parole; he got that second chance thanks to a law called Prosecutor-Initiated Resentencing. Spearheaded by former prosecutor Hillary Blout and passed in California in 2018, the law rectifies too-harsh prison sentences by giving prosecutors—those who charge and convict—the power to ask the court to resent and release someone. It's not just a reform movement; it's part of the job, she says. "If [a prosecutor] sought a sentence at a certain time, they have to ensure that sentence is still just years later."

Blout's nonprofit, For the People, works with prosecutors to identify those who have been incarcerated for about 10 years and who have shown a change, such as getting sober or seeking anger-management help. Thomas is one of more than 100 people released under the law in California. For the People is now working with other states; Oregon and Illinois have passed their own versions. "We're hoping this is something that will become part of the fabric of the way that the justice system operates," Blout says. —Kristin Toussaint

WOOD: How about that?

OBEGINSKI: M.

WOOD: What's that?

OBEGINSKI: K. L. P.

WOOD: Okay. So it looks like you were making letters when I was gone. Yeah? Do you like to make letters?

OBEGINSKI: Yes.

WOOD: Okay. Well, you know what, Lexie, I just have a few more questions and we're done. Okay? Lexie, did your daddy ever do something to hurt you?

OBEGINSKI: No.

WOOD: No. Okay. Well, what are you gonna do for the rest of the day, Lexie?

OBEGINSKI: Well right now the police are helping him.

WOOD: Hmm?

OBEGINSKI: Right now the police are helping him.

WOOD: Oh, right now the police are helping him.

OBEGINSKI: (Inaudible)

WOOD: Hmm?

OBEGINSKI: The police are helping him not drink with me.

WOOD: Oh, the police are helping him to drink with you. Oh, okay. Thank you for helping me to understand that. What did you make with the paper?

OBEGINSKI: Hmm?

WOOD: What did you make with the paper?

OBEGINSKI: Huh?

WOOD: It seems like you made something with the paper. Did you make something?
Are you able to look through it?

OBEGINSKI: Huh?

WOOD: Are you able to look through your paper?

OBEGINSKI: Yeah.

WOOD: Yeah. Okay. Well, we're all done, Lexie. You're gonna get a checkup now, but do you want to see your mommy?

OBEGINSKI: Mm-mm.

WOOD: No. Do you want to go ahead and get your checkup?

OBEGINSKI: (Inaudible)

WOOD: Okay. We're all done. We're going to go get your checkup. Are you ready?
Thank you for meeting with me today. We're going out this way.
