UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff—Appellee,

versus

TRYTON ALONZO THOMAS,

Defendant—Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Western District of Louisiana
USDC No. 5:21-CR-275-1

Before BARKSDALE, ENGELHARDT, and WILSON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Tryton Alonzo Thomas pleaded guilty to conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute methamphetamine, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) (prohibiting unlawful acts with controlled substance), (b)(1)(A)(viii) (outlining sentencing for “50 grams or more of methamphetamine”), 846 (prohibiting conspiracy). He was sentenced, inter alia, to 262 months’ imprisonment, based in part on a career-offender enhancement under Guideline § 4B1.1.

No. 22-30637

Thomas contends his instant offense is not a qualifying controlled-substance offense. See Guideline § 4B1.2 cmt. n.1 (amended 2023) (defining terms). He maintains: the Guideline language does not include inchoate offenses; and, although the commentary does include such offenses, the commentary is inconsistent with the text of the Guideline.

Although post-Booker, the Sentencing Guidelines are advisory only, the district court must avoid significant procedural error, such as improperly calculating the Guidelines sentencing range. Gall v. United States, 552 U.S. 38, 46, 51 (2007). If no such procedural error exists, a properly preserved objection to an ultimate sentence is reviewed for substantive reasonableness under an abuse-of-discretion standard. Id. at 51; United States v. Delgado-Martinez, 564 F.3d 750, 751–53 (5th Cir. 2009). In that respect, for issues preserved in district court, its application of the Guidelines is reviewed de novo; its factual findings, only for clear error. E.g., United States v. Cisneros-Gutierrez, 517 F.3d 751, 764 (5th Cir. 2008).

As reflected above, Guidelines interpretation and application are reviewed de novo. E.g., United States v. Sam, 467 F.3d 857, 861 (5th Cir. 2006). Following completion of briefing in this case, our court, en banc, rejected a contention identical to Thomas'. United States v. Vargas, 74 F.4th 673, 690, 697–98 (5th Cir. 2023) (en banc) (“[W]e reaffirm our longstanding precedent that inchoate offenses like conspiracy are included in the definition of ‘controlled substance offense’”).

AFFIRMED.

IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of: 262 month(s) as to count 1. The defendant was arrested on September 29, 2021, by the Sabine Parish Tactical Narcotics Team, and has been in continuous custody since the instant offense. He has been in Federal custody since November 15, 2021. The Court notes the potential of an anticipated sentence in Docket Number 82404 filed in the 11th Judicial District Court in Sabine Parish, Louisiana. This charge does represent relevant conduct in this case. Pursuant to USSG §5G1.3(d) and 18 U.S.C. § 3584, it is the Order of the Court that the sentence for the instant offense is ordered to run concurrently to the anticipated state sentence in Docket Number 82404. Should the defendant be entitled to credit for any of the time he has already spent in custody, the Federal Bureau of Prisons will make that determination.

- ☒ The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:
The Court recommends that the defendant be evaluated for inclusion in the Residential Drug Treatment Program or any appropriate substance abuse treatment program by the BOP.
- ☒ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
- ☐ The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:
- ☐ at _____ ☐ a.m. ☐ p.m. on _____.
- ☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
- ☐ The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
- ☐ before 2 p.m. on _____
- ☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
- ☐ as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

CASE NUMBER: 5:21-CR-00275-1

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of: five (5) years

MANDATORY CONDITIONS (MC)

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
4. ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
8. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)
9. ☐ The passport restriction imposed at the time of initial release is hereby suspended, and defendant's passport is ordered released to defendant's attorney. (check if applicable)
10. ☐ The passport restriction imposed at the time of initial release is continued, and defendant's passport is ordered transferred to the U. S. Department of State. (check if applicable)
11. You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as any other conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION (SC)

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U. S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at:
