DECLARATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

On Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to the Washington State Supreme Court

CAROLYN SIOUX GREEN

v.

STATE OF WASHINGTON, ET AL.,

---

Petitioner CAROLYN SIOUX GREEN in the above-entitled case, respectfully moves this Court to proceed in forma pauperis in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915. On June 5, 2023, I filed a petition for a Writ of Certiorari to Leave to Proceed as a Veteran pursuant to Rule 40.1 of the Supreme Court of the United States. This Court denied my petition on October 2, 2023 without providing an explanation for its decision. On September 5, 2023, I filed for bankruptcy in the U.S. District Court of Western Washington Case No. 23-41509. As a result of my financial circumstances, it is unfair to expect me to bear any additional financial burden of more court costs, including costs associated with this case. This document is a declaration of compliance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

As a matter of law, I am entitled to redress.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the forgoing statement is made under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct, and that I am competent to testify to the matters set forth herein.

Respectfully submitted this 30th day of October 2023.

s/ Carolyn Sioux Green

1. Designate any portions of the Clerk's Papers and other documents necessary for review.

EXEMPTION OF PACER FEES

13 This matter is before the Court upon the application and request by Ms. Carolyn
14 Green for exemption from the fees imposed by the Electronic Public Access fee schedule
15 adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts.

16 The Court finds that Ms. Green, as a homeless and possibly indigent litigant in the 17 process of filing for bankruptcy, falls within the class of users listed in the fee schedule as 18 being eligible for a fee exemption. Additionally, Ms. Green has demonstrated that an 19 exemption is necessary to avoid unreasonable burdens and to promote public access to 20 information. Accordingly, Ms. Green shall be exempt from the payment of fees for access
21 via PACER to the electronic case files maintained in this court, specifically for case
22 number 2:21-cv-01276-RAJ, in which she is the plaintiff.

1 She shall not be exempt from the payment of fees incurred in connection with
2 other uses of the PACER system in this court. Additionally, the following limitations
3 apply:

- 4 1. this fee exemption applies only to Ms. Carolyn Green and is valid only for the 5 purposes stated above;
- 6 2. this fee exemption applies only to the electronic case files of this court that are 7 available through the PACER system;
- 8 3. by accepting this exemption, Ms. Green agrees not to sell for profit any data 9 obtained as a result of receiving this exemption;
- 10 4. Ms. Green is prohibited from transferring any data obtained as a result of 11 receiving this exemption, including redistribution via internet-based databases;
- 12 5. this exemption is valid retroactively to April 1, 2022 until September 30, 2023.

13 This exemption may be revoked at the discretion of the Court at any time. A copy of this
14 order shall be sent to the PACER Service Center.

Official Form 309A (For Individuals or Joint Debtors)

Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case — No Proof of Claim Deadline

For the debtors listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors or the debtors' property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the court to extend or impose a stay.

The debtors are seeking a discharge. Creditors who assert that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge of any debts or who want to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadlines specified in this notice. (See line 9 for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at pacer.uscourts.gov).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.

To help creditors correctly identify debtors, debtors submit full Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which may appear on a version of this notice. However, the full numbers must not appear on any document filed with the court.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case. Do not include more than the last four digits of a Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number in any document, including attachments, that you file with the court.

| 12. Exempt property  | The law allows debtors to keep certain property as exempt. Fully exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. Debtors must file a list of property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the bankruptcy clerk's office or online at https://pacer.uscourts.gov . If you believe that the law does not authorize an exemption that the debtors claim, you may file an objection. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objection by the deadline to object to exemptions in line 9.  |  |

Notice of Potential Dismissal

If the debtor fails to file required schedules, statements or lists within 15 days from the date the petition is filed, or object to dismissal of the case indicating why dismissal is not appropriate, the case may be dismissed without further notice. If the Debtor(s) fails to appear at the meeting of creditors, the U.S. Trustee may apply for an order of dismissal without further notice.

Anyone can register for the Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing program at ebn.uscourts.gov OR (2) Debtors can register for DeBN by filing local form DeBN Request Form with the Clerk of Court. Both options are FREE and allow the clerk to quickly send you court-issued notices and orders by email.
