

United States Court of Appeals For the First Circuit

No. 20-2188

FULVIO FLETE-GARCIA,

Petitioner - Appellant,

v.

UNITED STATES,

Respondent - Appellee.

Before

Kayatta, Lynch and Montecalvo,
Circuit Judges.

Exhibit A

ORDER OF COURT

[Entered: October 16, 2023]

This court entered judgment denying a certificate of appealability on May 23, 2023. Petitioner's subsequent filings were construed as a petition for panel rehearing and denied on August 30, 2023. Mandate entered on September 7, 2023. The court has since received petitioner's petition for a "new revision of my appeal" which we construe as a motion to recall mandate and, as such, deny. See Calderon v. Thompson, 523 U.S. 538, 550 (1998) ("[t]he sparing use of the power [to recall mandate] demonstrates it is one of last resort, to be held in reserve against grave, unforeseen circumstances"). The exhibit provisionally sealed by the Clerk shall be filed under seal. The Clerk is directed to accept no further filings in this case.

05/16/2022	<input type="checkbox"/>		ORDER entered by Jeffrey R. Howard, Appellate Judge: The "motion requesting legal documents" is denied; the request for a copy of the Complaint is denied without prejudice to appellant ordering a copy of that document from the district court clerk, and asking the clerk for the cost of producing that copy in accordance with the District Court Miscellaneous Fee Schedule issued pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1914. We note that the deadline for the filing of petitioner's request for a certificate of appealability ("COA") has been extended multiple times and is currently set for June 1, 2022. Notwithstanding the denial of the instant motion, the petitioner should expect no further extensions of that deadline. Should petitioner fail to file a request for a COA by that deadline, the court will promptly take up the question of whether to grant a COA and will make its determination based on the district court record. So ordered. [20-2188] (GRC) [Entered: 05/16/2022 01:05 PM]
