Re: Request for extension of time to file response to petition
Galindo v. Nebraska, No. 23-7364 (Capital Case)

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to Rule 30.4, Respondent the State of Nebraska respectfully requests a sixty-day extension of time to file a brief in opposition to Petitioner Jorge Galindo's Petition for Writ of Certiorari. Respondent requests the Court extend the State's response deadline from June 3, 2024, to August 2, 2024.

This Court granted Petitioner a sixty-day extension to file his petition. This is Respondent's first request for an extension of time to file its response. Respondent has conferred with counsel for Petitioner, and Petitioner consents to the extension. Good cause exists for the extension of time because counsel for Respondent has several impending deadlines for cases in the Nebraska appellate courts and requires additional time to respond to the arguments raised in Mr. Galindo's petition.

Sincerely,

Erin E. Tangeman
Office of the Nebraska Attorney General
