Pertinent supporting provision

Federal Rules of evidence

Rule 1002. Requirement of Original edit

To prove the content of a writing, recording, or photograph, the original writing, recording, or photograph is required, except as otherwise provided in these rules or by Act of Congress.

Rule 1002 is commonly known as the original document rule or best evidence rule. It states that an original document should be produced in court when its terms are material to the argument—when it is the "best evidence" available.
