motion to reconsider

habeas petition x: 23-7655

petition for rehearing

i am requesting this Court to reconsider my habeas petition under case no. x23-7655
Under the cause that you have ruled, over and over again that indian tribes retain jurisdiction over all their members, in all criminal matters;

i am a noble bloodright heir by succession to the Delaware Treaty of 1778, between the Delaware Indians, and the United States of north america; my nation has completed our ascension Under the Delaware Treaty of 1778, of which was completed through the United Nations, this year of 2024; with formal recognition under the U.S. copyright office - V.150140341, and our Court formally backed by the Library of Congress - Tx0002347364;

We have made the proper steps to re-establish our recognition. Under your Constitution, we are Indians not taxed and our treaty is validated within the Supremacy Clause, for our treaty pre-dates the Constitution; if our treaty, ascension, your seals, and backing by the Library of Congress is not valid, may i receive this in writing, instead of constant denials, so my Nation will know how to proceed further;

- Under Article I of our treaty, all offenses are to be mutually forgiven, yet i have not been forgiven, and no crime was committed by i, man;
- Under article II of the treaty, we are to have perpetual peace and friendship, yet no peace nor friendship has been extended to i, man;
- Under Article III of our treaty, the U.S. is to have free passage on my ancestral land, but i, man have been harmed by the U.S. on my ancestral land;
- Under Article IV of our treaty, i was to have a trial held according to natural law only, with judges of both sides, juries of both sides, yet my nation was never contacted, and not one natural law was upheld, i was the sole party of my Nation, at all proceedings;
- Under article VI of our treaty, territorial rights are guaranteed to the Delaware Indians, and their heirs, yet, i have been denied all of my rights with no justification;

thus, i am requesting this Court to reconsider my habeas, only under the cause that indian tribes retain jurisdiction over all their members, in all criminal matters, as held in; Duro v. Reina, no. 88-6546 (1990) and in re mayfield, no. 15 original (1891);

i am entitled to the protection of the Constitution, and our Treaty. the judgements given not only affects my personal liberty, it affects our Treaty that was mutually agreed upon, and enables the lower courts to continue to inflict disgraceful punishments, and to not honor any of our Treaties. i am not interested on making any law or statute unconstitutional by any means, i am only intrested in the enforcement of our Treaty, and upon the granting of my habeas under this one cause stated above, will release i, man from the chains of this inhumane captivity; to the hands of my Nation, of which i belong; i also hereby certify that this petition is filed in good faith and peace, not for delay;

i say now, all herein be true and will verify in open court, under penalty of perjury;

Notice of certification

Case no: 23-7655

Greetings;

this is to certify that these grounds presented are limited to intervening circumstances of substantial importance and controlling effect, as our Delaware Treaty of 1778 was re-established, and my Nation completed the Ascension this year of 2024, and not completed until after i filed the extraordinary writ of habeus corpus within this honorable Court, thus, these substantial grounds could not be presented within the writ.

for these extraordinary and compelling reasons, i respectfully request that this honorable Court grant this habeus writ, only under the cause that this honorable Court has ruled over and over again that "indian tribes retain jurisdiction over all their members in all criminal matters," thereby affirming our treaties. see e.g., "doro v. Reina no. 88-6546 (1990); and "in re mayfield, no-15 original (1891);

i do give many thanks and the upmost gratitude for honouring this request, and upholding our Delaware Treaty of 1778;

i say now, all herein be valid and true, under the penalty of perjury;
