QUESTIONS PRESENTED

A. QUESTION PRESENTED: Whether there is an ongoing violation of Fourteenth Amendment due process rights under the Constitution of the United States, an unfair tribunal, and an appearance of partiality, where The Honorable President of the United States, Joseph R. Biden, Jr., apparently, in support of highly controversial and political LBGTQ agenda, commanded the appointment of a Judge, who is a member of the LBGTQ community, who presides (or presided) on a three-Judge Panel, in Circuit Court proceedings, for a private citizen's Appeals; and where the Judge sat on a Panel which denied a Motion for his or her own Disqualification; and whether the Judge must disqualify from the Appeals.

B. QUESTION PRESENTED: Whether the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit sanctioned a pervasive judicial misconduct, bias and prejudice in affirming a District Judge and Magistrate Judge refusal to disqualify from Court proceedings upon a Motion for judicial Disqualification/Recusal in accordance with 28 U.S. Code § 144 and 28 U.S. Code § 455 (involving a Magistrate Judge extrajudicial affiliation with the American Bar association social-political agenda in support of the LGBTQ community and LGBTQ rights; and where a District Judge sanctioned the misconduct); and in an ongoing violation of substantive and procedural Fourteenth Amendment Due Process Clause, Petition Clause, and Equal Protection Clause rights under the Constitution of the United States; and whether the District Judge and Magistrate Judge must disqualify.

C. QUESTION PRESENTED: Whether the Supreme Court should promulgate a Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 27(a) cause of Action for the Perpetuation of Evidence concealed (e.g. Trust documents), where most circuits, including the Third Circuit, do not provide a Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 27(a) cause of action for testimony concealed but, rather, for Evidence lost, stolen, or destroyed (Ash v. Cort, 512 F.2d 909, 911 (3d Cir.1975)); and where the Second Circuit provides a Fed. R. Civ. P. Rule 27 cause of action to perpetuate testimony that is lost, concealed, or destroyed (In

R. Civ. P. Rule 27(a) Petition to Perpetuate Evidence, as to whether Trust documents are concealed.

STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

The Supreme Court has jurisdiction to hear the Petitions for Certiorari pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 1254(1),<sup>12</sup> in accordance with Sup. Ct. R. 10(a).

Additionally, Petitioner invokes U.S. Sup. Ct. R. 12(4) – “When two or more judgments are sought to be reviewed on a writ of certiorari to the same court and involve identical or closely related questions, a single petition for a writ of certiorari covering all the judgments suffices...”

The Supreme Court’s power to issue a Writ of Mandamus may overlap its authority to grant a Writ of Certiorari when the Court is acting in a supervisory capacity (Moore’s Federal Practice §510.24(1)(b), p. 510-23) (Hollingsworth v. Perry, 558 U.S. 183, 190–91, 130 S. Ct. 705,

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Honorable President Joseph R. Biden, Jr. (“President Biden”) nominated the Honorable Judge Arianna Julia Freeman, on January 19, 2022, as a Judge for the Court. During the same year, on June 15, 2022, President Biden signed an Executive Order<sup>14</sup> in support of LGBTQ rights. In close proximity, during the same year, on October 20, 2022, the Hon. Judge Freeman was commission to the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (It is Petitioner’s understanding that the Hon. Judge Freeman is homosexual). The Hon. Judge Freeman’s commission to the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, on October 20, 2022 was also in close proximity with President Biden signing into law the “Respect for Marriage Act”<sup>15</sup> (H.R. 8404), during the same year, on December 13, 2022, in support of LGBTQ rights. ## ARGUMENT

The Honorable Judge, Arianna Julia Freeman, erred at law pursuant to 28 U.S.C.A. § 455 Disqualification, in refusing to disqualify from Petitioner's Appeals at CA3 Docket # 22-1133, 22-1644, and Docket # 22-1900, consolidated (In re Willis, No. 22-1133, 2023 WL 2300655 (3d Cir. Mar. 1, 2023); Rehearing Judgment Order, ECF No. 152, and Opinion, ECF No. 157-2; Mandate ECF No. 157-3) ("Docket # 22-1133") Section § 455(a) requires a judge to disqualify [---] in any proceeding in which [---] impartiality might reasonably be questioned ("A violation of § 455(a)—which requires a judge to disqualify [herself] in any proceeding in which [her] impartiality might reasonably be questioned—is established when a reasonable person, knowing the relevant facts, would expect that a judge knew of circumstances creating an appearance of partiality, notwithstanding a finding that the judge was not actually conscious of those circumstances." (generally) *Liljeberg v. *1833, ECF No. 179, Background: 2018 Section 1983 Action –

There is a reasonable probability that at least four Hon. Justices will vote to consider the issues sufficiently meritorious to grant certiorari, due to the Honorable President Joseph R. Biden's apparent intervention in the affairs of a private citizen's Court Actions. Also, Petitioner claims a substantive and procedural due process violation of Constitutional rights to a real estate property interest.<sup>28</sup> Additionally, Ms. Willis is Christian. There appears to be religious overtones involved as well.

In Liljeberg, the Supreme Court states that, “*We conclude that in determining whether a judgment should be vacated for a violation of § 455(a), it is appropriate to consider the risk of injustice to the parties in the particular case, the risk that the denial of relief will produce injustice in other cases, and the risk of undermining the public's confidence in the judicial process. We must continuously bear in mind that “to perform its high function in the best way ‘justice must satisfy

The Supreme Court Has Supervisory Jurisdiction over Courts of Appeals. Pursuant to Sup.Ct. R. 10(a), a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari will be granted only for compelling reasons, such as when a United States Court of Appeals has “so far departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings, or sanctioned such a departure by a lower court, as to call for an exercise of this Court's supervisory power.” (U.S. Sup. Ct. R. 10 (a)). “This Court also has a significant interest in supervising the administration of the judicial system...”

Hollingsworth v. Perry, 558 U.S. 183, 196, 130 S. Ct. 705, 713, 175 L. Ed. 2d 657 (2010). The Supreme Court’s power to issue a Writ of

Mandamus may overlap its authority to grant a Writ of Certiorari when the Court is acting in a supervisory capacity (Moore's Federal Practice §510.24(1)(b), p. 510-23) (Hollingsworth v. Perry, 558 U.S. 183, 190–91, 130 S. Ct. 705, 710, 175 L. Ed. 2d 657 (2010)) Here, there are substantial questions as to whether the Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit ("CA3") departed from the accepted and usual course of judicial proceedings when a Panel Judge(s) refused to disqualify from the Appeals; and when federal District Judges, harboring a pervasive bias and prejudice refused to disqualify from the Court proceeding(s), and/or sanctioned judicial misconduct in affirming a refusal to disqualify. In its supervisory capacity, "The Supreme Court can determine issues of judicial administration that seriously affect the fairness, integrity, or reputation of public judicial proceedings; and Whether a federal appellate court was legally constituted, where the question was raised whether a judge was qualified to sit on the appellate court." (citation not immediately available) "The Court's interest in ensuring compliance with ... judicial administration is particularly acute when ... relate to the integrity of judicial processes." Hollingsworth v. Perry, 558 U.S. 183, 196, 130 S. Ct. 705, 713, 175 L. Ed. 2d 657 (2010). Thus, there is a reasonable probability that four Justices will consider the issue sufficiently meritorious to grant certiorari.

As the District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania has stated, “The Court is involved, and has been involved, with a number of organizations, both within and outside of the Bar Association, that support the rights of the LGBTQ community.” Also, the President Biden will appoint more judges to the Court. Therefore, federal due process rights of the public are at risk, and are likely to recur.

This Court may also consider, as a matter of supervisory jurisdiction, an issue where the Second Circuit provides a Rule 27 cause of action to perpetuate testimony (e.g. documents) that are concealed (“Yamaha Motor is required to make an objective showing that without a Rule 27 hearing, known testimony would otherwise be lost, concealed, or destroyed” In re Petition of Yamaha Motor Corporation, U.S.A., 251 F.R.D. 97, 99 (N.D.N.Y. 2008)); and where the Third Circuit provides a Rule 27 cause of action only to perpetuate documents that are lost, stolen, or destroyed (Ash v. Cort, 512 F.2d 909, 911 (3d Cir.1975)), but does not adjudicate the precise question as to whether (Trust) documents are concealed. (generally, Evaporated Milk Ass’n v. Roche,
