ORDER

Appellant's motion to expedite the resolution of this appeal is denied. Absent exceptions that do not apply here, our appellate jurisdiction is limited to reviewing "final" decisions of the district courts. See 28 U.S.C. § 1291. In this appeal, Appellant does not challenge any district court order, let alone a final one. Instead, she discusses the merits of a case that is currently proceeding before the District Court. Accordingly, we hereby dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction. In view of this disposition, we do not decide whether it would be appropriate to dismiss this appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2) or resolve it via summary action. Nothing in this order prevents Appellant from filing a new notice of appeal once the District Court enters a final order in her case. At this time, we take no position on the merits of such an appeal.

By the Court,

Circuit Judge
