QUESTION(S) PRESENTED

I would like to have my case looked at because the court failed to give jury instructions on Heat of passion.

The reasons the jury in my trial should have been instructed on Heat of passion jury instructions is because my mental state was provoked by fear, anger, terror, mental health issues from PTSD, with paranoia, with my pride being embarrassed, plus alcohol and drugs impaired my thinking process.

Being jealous under the influence while thinking about the last encounter that me and Robert Pitts had, created very irrational decision making when I seen his Land Rover parked outside of Donniesha's place.

I was not in my right mind, and foolishly snapped from the jealousy. It over took my mind. Thinking of him and Donniesha in there together hurt me. These actions, and mindstate are the reasons I should have got the jury instructed on Heat of passion!

Please look into this matter!

Thank you for the time that you will spend on this issue at hand.

They denied the appeal because they think that love didn't factor in to the reasons of being jealous. That was not factual.

I was intoxicated, afraid, jealous, furious, and suffer documented mental health issues. The jury didn't get the proper instructions that should have been explained. Please take a look at my case!
