Re: Abbott v. Supreme Ct. of Delaware, et al., No. 23-855

Dear Mr. Harris:

As counsel of record for respondents in the above-captioned case, I am writing to request a 14-day extension of time to file a brief in opposition in this case to and including May 1, 2024. The certiorari petition was filed on January 15, 2024, and it was docketed on February 8. Respondents filed a Waiver on March 6; the Court requested a response on March 18. Without the requested extension, the brief in opposition would be due on April 17.

The 14-day extension to file a brief in opposition to the certiorari petition is necessary because undersigned counsel requires additional time to review the substantial record in this case and to respond appropriately to the multiple arguments raised in the petition. In addition, the press of other matters in the Office of Disciplinary Counsel over the next few weeks as well as some previously scheduled commitments out of the office support the requested extension.

Petitioner has stated that he does not oppose the requested extension. Accordingly, respondents request a 14-day extension of time to file a brief in opposition in this case to and including May 1, 2024.

Hon. Scott S. Harris
