Re: No. 23-941, In re: First Choice Women's Resource Centers Inc.

Dear Mr. Harris:

In its Petition for a writ of mandamus or certiorari before judgment filed February 27, 2024, First Choice Women's Resource Centers indicated its intent to move this Court to temporarily enjoin New Jersey Attorney General Matthew Platkin from enforcing his Subpoena pending this Court's decision on the Petition. See Pet. at 6 n.2. Following its filing of the Petition, First Choice conferred with the Attorney General to request that he consent to adjourn the March 27, 2024 show-cause state-court hearing to protect this Court's jurisdiction to consider the Petition. The Attorney General has now agreed to seek adjournment of that hearing until May 23, 2024 or later—to give this Court time to rule on the Petition—and the parties have submitted a consent order to the state court to adjourn the March 27, 2024 hearing. In that submission, First Choice has reserved all its rights to raise arguments and objections concerning the state court's jurisdiction, issues of abstention, questions regarding stays of that proceeding, and issues related to the merits of that matter.

Subject to the state court's entry of the order adjourning the March 27, 2024 hearing, and absent a change in facts that necessitates immediate relief, First Choice will not be filing an emergency motion with this Court to temporarily enjoin enforcement of the Subpoena.

Respectfully Submitted,

s/ Lincoln Davis Wilson
