RULE 29.2 DECLARATION

Pursuant to this Court's Rule 29.2, I, Tejinder Singh, declare as follows:

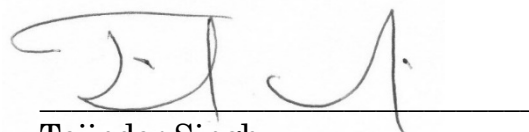

1. On Friday, November 17, 2023, I filed an application to extend time to file the petition for a writ of certiorari in this matter.
2. The petition was due to be filed on November 28, 2023, and so the application was filed at least ten days before the due date.
3. The paper copies of the application were hand-filed at the Court. The time-stamped copy of the application shows that it was received at 10:48 AM on that date. A true and correct copy of the time-stamped front page is appended to this declaration.

4. I filed the electronic version of the application around the same time, receiving an e-mail confirmation at 10:46 AM.

5. Although both the paper and electronic versions of the application were timely filed, I was informed by the Clerk's office that as of Wednesday, November 22, the paper version had not reached the Clerk's office. The belief is that the application is taking longer than expected to arrive from the Court's offsite delivery processing facility. Accordingly, the application had not been deemed filed as of that date.

6. Because time is of the essence, with the current deadline to file the petition on Tuesday, November 28, 2023, the Clerk's office suggested in a voice mail to me that I submit this declaration by e-mail so that the electronic version of the application could be printed and submitted to Justice Kagan's chambers if the paper copies do not arrive soon.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
Executed on November 23, 2023.

APPLICATION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE PETITION FOR A WRIT OF CERTIORARI FROM NOVEMBER 28, 2023 TO JANUARY 12, 2024

To the Honorable Justice Kagan, as Circuit Justice for the Ninth Circuit:

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2101(c) and Supreme Court Rules 13.5, 22, and 30, the above-captioned petitioners respectfully request that the time to file a petition for a writ of certiorari in this case be extended to and including January 12, 2024. The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit issued its opinion in this case on June 23, 2023 (App. 1a-35a, infra), and denied a timely petition for rehearing on August 30, 2023 (App. 36a, infra). Absent an extension, the petition for a writ of certiorari would be due on November 28, 2023, which is less than more than ten days before that date. Such an extension is requested under 28 U.S.C. § 1254 to review this case.
