Dear Mr. Harris,

In accordance with Supreme Court Rule 23, I am submitting my renewed application for the case Akerman v. General Daniel Hokanson, Application No. 23A489, to be directed to Justice Elena Kagan. Before this submission reaches Justice Kagan's chambers, I would like to kindly highlight the following concerns and requests:

Spoliation of Records Concern: The potential spoliation of records in the lower courts (Docket Numbers 59 and 64) raises significant concerns about the evaluation of my case.

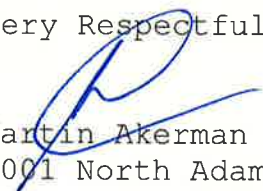

Electronic Docket Update Request: I respectfully request the inclusion of the three-volume memorandum in the electronic docket, along with the separate filing of the proof of service, due to the increased reliance on electronic files post the Paper Reduction Act.

Caption Correction Request: May I ask for a correction in the caption to accurately reflect General Hokanson's name as in the original submission?

Date Adjustment Request: The application process, starting on October 31, 2023 (as indicated in your November 6 letter), should reflect the timeliness of my stay request in relation to the granting of my stay request (Docket Number 63) and the denial of rehearing en banc (Docket Number 66).

Thank you for your attention to these matters, and for facilitating the consideration of this renewed application.

Very Respectfully,

Martin Akerman
