v) Case no.: 22-1637
United States of America)

MOTION FOR EXTENSION TO FILE PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI

BEFORE THE SECOND CIRCUIT JUSTICE

Comes now, Christopher J. Pratt, requesting the Honorable Circuit Justice to grant a 60-day extension for filing a petition for writ of certiorari to appeal a final order under 28 USC §2255, pursuant to section 2253(c)(10(B). Offered in support of the following:

- During transfers through the BOP and cell changes through COVID-19 the Petitioner has suffered the loss of court documentation and is currently in the process of re-collecting the documents.
- The Petitioner's Power-of-Attorney, his sister, has suffered the loss of her daughter in November of 2023, which has limited the help she (Petitioner's sister) can provide the Petitioner in his quest to retrieve his court documents.
- 3. Time delays dealing with the Public Defender's Office and lower courts in retriving the Petitioner's documentation.

4. During the COVID-19 pandemic FCI Loretto changed their law library, making access to materials restricted to certain times on certain dates and subject to frequent and unannounced holiday/shut down periods.

The Petitioner prays the Honorable Circuit Justice will grant this extension of time.

Respectfully submitted,

Christopher J. Pratt
