William TED HOLLIDAY

Plaintiff,

Case #: 21-13888

v.

L.T. No.: # 317-CV-4945

Secretary, Florida Department of Corrections
David Morgan Chief Jailer Escambia County
Sheriff's Dept,

- MOTION For Extension of Time -

Comes NOW - William TED HOLLIDAY - Pro-Se, to respectfully move this Honorable Supreme Court in accordance with rule-13. by motioning said court for Extension of Time. In support thereof Plaintiff states as follows:

January 2, 2024 the eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals entered judgement denying plaintiff's motion for reconsideration - as a result, plaintiff filed a notice of appeal in this court on January 17, 2024. Consequently; Appellant was notified by this court on March 20, 2024
that his 'Notice of Appeal' is not a requisite to procedure.

Herein, the correspondence from this court also informed him that he has ninety-(90)-days from the eleventh Circuit final judgement to file the proper petition which is a Petition for Writ of Certiorari. However, plaintiff request to this court is, although the notification from the Supreme Court reveals a date of February 2, 2024 he had not received it until March 20th. Unfortunately,

March 20th is eleven-(11)-days until the -(90)-day deadline in which to file his Petition for writ of Certiorari in this court. Therefore, to prevent a "act" with great haste plaintiff hereby respectfully Request an extension of sixty-(60)-additional days of time to properly prepare his petition for writ of Certiorari

Therefore, he prays due to the surrounding conditions which prevented the initial reception of the format Petition including the time remaining to file his petition, this Honorable Court will grant his request for extension of time in the interest of Justice and ~~Prevention~~ Prevention of injustice.

Respectfully
submitted,
W.H.
