STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION STATEMENT OF JURISDICTION

In accordance with Supreme Court Rule 13 (1-5), this Court follows these well-accepted principles underlying 28 U.S.C. § 2101(f), which is the statutory authority for a judge of this Court or the Supreme Court to grant a stay/extension pending certiorari. Also, see 28 U.S.C.A. § 42 and Marshall v. Marshall (May 1, 2006) 547 U.S. 293, 298-299.

JUDGEMENTS:

United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, Judgements filed January 9, 2024, and January 30, 2024 (attached as Exhibits 1 and 2).

On approximately 5-6 days after the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Granted Extension of Time to File Certiorari (January 4, 2024); extended the date to February 24, 2024.

On January 9, 2024, United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit issued Orders denying the Petitioners' En Banc petition for hearing and objection to (2) Two Judge quorum.

On January 30, 2024, United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit issued Orders indicating, "The order warned that failure to comply would result in the automatic dismissal of the by the Clerk for failure to prosecute, without further notice and regardless of other filings." Sounds like a pre-Magna Carta ruling.

ORIGINAL TIME TO FILE:

The original time to file the subject Certiorari was December 26, 2023, for case for case # 21-56157, see Exhibit 3.

The Petitioners requested a sixty (60) day extension, which would have been February 24, 2024 respectively, computed from December 27, 2023. See Exhibit 3, Filed September 28, 2023.

On January 4, 2024, the Supreme Court of the United States granted the Petitioners' requested extension.

Five (5) days later, on January 9, 2024, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals denied Petitioners' Petition for Hearing En Banc, on the instant matter. According to Supreme Court Rule 13.3, "[B]ut if a petition for rehearing is timely filed in the lower court by any party, or if the lower court appropriately entertains an untimely petition for rehearing or sua sponte considers rehearing, the time to file the petition for a writ of certiorari for all parties (whether or not they requested rehearing or joined in the petition for rehearing) runs from the date of the denial of rehearing or, if rehearing is granted the subsequent entry of judgment."

JUSTIFICATION FOR OF EXTENSION OF TIME:

Presently, the United States Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit is attempting to deny the Petitioners' their statutory "appeal of right", under the De Novo Standard of Review. Additionally, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals is refusing to allow the petitioners adequate time for preparing and filing their brief in the before mentioned matters. This action is designed to force the petitioners into waiving their right to De Novo Review of the corrupt actions perpetrated by the District Judge and Magistrate and accept the inferior “clear error” standard of review. Wherein the Circuit Court could and most probably would, attribute presumptive credibility to the actions of the lower court. This would also destroy and eliminate the Petitioners’ protection of the federal jurisdictional authority which has been attached to this matter since its inception and up to the present day.

Also, as may be apparent, the 9th Circuit has acted multiple acts of contempt of court, in acting to proceed dismiss a matter that is currently within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the United States. See Exhibits 1 through 3.

Additionally, the Petitioners must contend with looting of the Ethel Ellington Living Trust which has been occurring while the matter has been before the United States District Court, the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the United States. The 9th Circuits acts of contempt must be addressed.

The conduct acted by the 9th Circuit is beneath the “noble” character expected of any reasonable court, as they have riotously acted to deprive the Petitioners of the rights and protections afforded citizens of this Great Country, when requesting justification of matters of law and ethics.

Jurisdiction Question:

It being that the 9th Circuit denied Petitioners’ En Banc request on January 9, 2024, the Petitioners allotted 90 days from this date to file Certiorari in the related cases. See SUPREME COURT RULE 13.1 AND 13.3. Thus, the extension granted by the Supreme Court, which authorized filing of Certiorari, on February 24, 2024, must be corrected, to indicate Petitioners' filing date is now April 8 and 28, 2024.

Presently, Petitioner, Azariah M. Ellington request extension of time from April 8, 2024, to June 7, 2024, and April 28, 2024, to June 27, 2024.

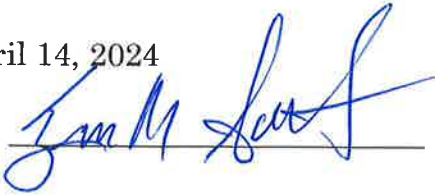

CONCLUSION

No reasonable jurist, who is positioned to protect the United States Constitution, could discover the alleged conduct acted by the alleged jurists and court staff, then fail to arrest and correct what has happened in this case, related to a "bedbound" nonagenarian who was attacked by sadistic, greedy, malicious, criminal, vile and thoughtless judges, attorneys and State appointed fiduciaries. The Petitioners contend that 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983, 18 U.S.C. §§ 4, 241, 242, 1512 and 1519 are just a few of the violations acted by California State Superior Court Judges Mary Thornton House, Maria Stratton, David J. Cowan, David Cunningham, Barbera Johnson, Daniel Juarez and state Appointees Vikram Brar and Lisa Fisher, 9th Circuit, Chief Justice Emeritus, Sidney R. Thomas and associates; Judge Stephen V. Wilson Magistrate John D. Early and associates.

Because the Honorable Justice Elena Kagan has been very forthcoming concerning the Integrity and Legitimacy of the Courts, the Petitions are hopeful that her openness is more than just a ruse, but the actual heart and efforts of this Supreme Court Justice of the United States. Petitioners pray that no other American Citizen experiences the vile cruelty acted by the alleged suspects.

Therefore, the Petitioners respectfully request extension of time for filing Certiorari, [(60 Days) June 7, 2024 and June 27, 2024], be allotted, to provide adequate opportunity for the protection of their rights.

ORDER

On January 9, 2024, this court ordered appellant to file the opening brief by January 22, 2024. The order warned that failure to comply would result in the automatic dismissal of the appeal by the Clerk for failure to prosecute, without further notice and regardless of other filings. To date, appellant has not complied with the court's order. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed for failure to prosecute. See 9th Cir. R. 42-1.

All pending motions are denied as moot.

This order served on the district court shall, 21 days after the date of the order, act as and for the mandate of this court.

ORDER

Before: LEE and VANDYKE, Circuit Judges.

We treat appellants' "petition for hearing en banc" (Docket Entry No. 37) as a motion for reconsideration en banc. The motion for reconsideration en banc is denied on behalf of the court. See 9th Cir. R. 27-10; 9th Cir. Gen. Ord. 6.11.

All other pending motions and requests, including appellants' requests for a stay of appellate proceedings (Docket Entry Nos. 36 and 37), are denied.

The opening brief is now due January 22, 2024. The answering brief is due February 21, 2024. The optional reply brief is due within 21 days after service of the answering brief.

Because appellants are proceeding without counsel, appellants are not required to file excerpts of record. See 9th Cir. R. 30-1.3. If appellants do not file excerpts of record, appellees "must file Supplemental Excerpts of Record that contain all of the documents that are cited in the pro se opening brief or otherwise required by Rule 30-1.4, as well as the documents that are cited in the answering brief.” Id.

If appellants do not file the opening brief by January 22, 2024, the appeal will be dismissed automatically by the Clerk for failure to prosecute, without further notice and regardless of other filings. See 9th Cir. R. 42-1.
