PETER PAUL MITRANO, et. al,
Petitioners,

v.

CARY CUCINELLI,
Respondents.

On Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the Supreme Court of Virginia

Directed To The Honorable John G. Roberts, Jr.
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States

Application to Extend Time to File Petition for Writ of Certiorari

The petitioners, Peter Paul Mitrano, pro se, and Stephanie Jean Kenaloha, pro se, state their Application to Extend Time to File for Writ of Certiorari as follows:

Parties to the Proceeding

The caption of this case in this Supreme Court of the United States contains the names of some of the parties. In addition, Stephanie Jean Kenaloha is a party. No party is a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of any company.

The petitioners, Peter Paul Mitrano, pro se, and Stephanie Jean Kenaloha, pro se, respectfully request an extension of time of 60 days to file their Petition for Writ of Certiorari in the above-captioned action.

The reason for the same is that the undersigned Peter Paul Mitrano, pro se, is a senior citizen in his mid-seventies presently working full time as a resident engineer for the Department of Veterans Affairs at the Cape Canaveral National Cemetery in Mims, Florida. Said work requires a substantial time commitment. The preparation of the Petition for Writ of Certiorari will require a substantial amount of time and collaboration between the petitioners.

The petitioners have determined that it would be in the best interest of justice for this Supreme Court of the United States to review this action. The reason for the delay is that other work and legal matters have required a substantial amount of the undersigned Peter Paul Mitrano's, time and effort. The petitioners apologize to this Supreme Court of the United States and opposing counsel for the delay in filing this application.

This action involves important legal issues including but not limited to a complete denial of due process before the courts in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

A copy of the denial of a petition for rehearing of the decision from the Supreme Court of Virginia, Mitrano v. Cucinelli, No. 230575 (January 31, 2024) is attached hereto. The Supreme Court of Virginia refused the subject petition for appeal on December 13, 2023.

Conclusion

For these reasons, the petitioners, Peter Paul Mitrano, pro se, and Stephanie Jean Kenaloha, pro se, respectfully request this Honorable Supreme Court of the United States grant this Application to Extend Time to File for Writ of Certiorari.

Respectfully submitted,

Stephanie Jean Kenaloha,
