ACTION NO. 4:17cv110

AMERICAN BANKERS INSURANCE
COMPANY OF FLORIDA d/b/a ASSURANT et al., Defendants.

DISMISSAL ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the following motions filed by pro se Plaintiffs James Beggs and Joyce Beggs (collectively "Plaintiffs"), Defendant American Bankers Insurance Company of Florida d/b/a Assurant ("American Bankers"), Defendant GEICO Insurance Agency ("GEICO"), and Defendant Cunningham Lindsey U.S. Inc. ("Cunningham Lindsey") (collectively "Defendants"):

(1) American Bankers' Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 56;

(2) Cunningham Lindsey's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 58

(3) GEICO's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 54; and

(4) Plaintiffs' "Motion to Quash Defendants' Motions to Dismiss Plaintiffs' Second Amended Motion for Judgment [of] Bad Faith" ("Motion to Quash"), ECF No. 62.

The Court concludes that oral argument is unnecessary because the facts and legal arguments are adequately presented in the parties' briefs. For the reasons set forth below, Plaintiffs' Motion to Quash, ECF No. 62, is DISMISSED; American Bankers' Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 56, is GRANTED; Cunningham Lindsey's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 58, is GRANTED; and GEICO's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 54, is GRANTED.

I. Relevant Procedural Background

Plaintiffs initiated this action on September 11, 2017, by paying the requisite fees and filing a document titled, "Motion for Judgment Bad Faith," which the Court construed as Plaintiffs' Complaint. See Compl., ECF No. 1; Receipt, ECF No. 1-7. Before any Defendant appeared in this action, Plaintiffs filed a document titled, "Amended Motion for Judgment Bad Faith," which the Court construed as Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint. See Am. Compl., ECF No.8.

All Defendants moved to dismiss Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint. See American Bankers' Mot. Dismiss, ECF No. 12; Cunningham Lindsey's Mot. Dismiss, ECF No. 15; GEICO's Mot. Dismiss, ECF No. 24. In response to Defendants' dismissal motions, Plaintiffs filed oppositions ("Oppositions") that contained factual allegations and legal claims that were not raised in their Amended Complaint. See Order at 4, ECF No. 42; Opp'ns, ECF Nos. 20, 27, 35. In an Order dated August 2, 2018, the Court explained that a litigant cannot amend a complaint via an opposition to a dismissal motion. See Order at 4. However, in deference to Plaintiffs' pro se status, the Court granted Plaintiffs leave to file a Second Amended Complaint, and dismissed the pending Motions to Dismiss as moot.¹ Id. at 4-5.

Plaintiffs subsequently filed a document titled, "Second Amended Motion for Judgment Bad Faith," which the Court construes as Plaintiffs' Second ¹ Because Plaintiffs paid the filings fees when they initiated this action, Plaintiffs were responsible for effecting service on Defendants. In its August 2, 2018 Order, the Court indicated that, "despite Plaintiffs' efforts, it [did] not appear that Defendants ha[d] been properly served with process in this action." Order at 5, ECF No. 42. To assist Plaintiffs, who are appearing pro se, the Court ordered counsel for Defendants to indicate "whether he or she [was] authorized to accept and/or waive service on behalf of his or her respective client." Id. All Defendants subsequently agreed to waive service. See Waivers. ECF Nos. 51-53.

Amended Complaint. See Second Am. Compl., ECF No. 46. On November 2, 2018, each Defendant filed a Motion to Dismiss, and provided Plaintiffs with a proper Roseboro Notice pursuant to Rule 7(K) of the Local Civil Rules of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. See GEICO's Mot. Dismiss, ECF No. 54; American Bankers' Mot. Dismiss, ECF No. 56; Cunningham Lindsey's Mot. Dismiss, ECF No. 58; Cunningham Lindsey's Roseboro Notice, ECF No. 60; E.D. Va. Loc. Civ. R. 7(K). On November 14, 2018, Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Quash, which despite its title, is clearly intended to serve as Plaintiffs' opposition to the three Motions to Dismiss. See Mot. Quash, ECF No. 62. Each Defendant construed Plaintiffs' Motion to Quash as an opposition to the Motions to Dismiss, and each Defendant filed a reply brief within seven days of Plaintiffs' filing.² See American Bankers' Reply, ECF No. 63; GEICO's Reply, ECF No. 64; Cunningham Lindsey's Reply, ECF No. 65. Plaintiffs also filed a document titled "Plaintiffs' Reply in Support of Motion for Judgment on Plaintiffs' Pleading," which appears to be an unauthorized surreply ("Surreply"), and a separate attachment ("Submission").³ See Surreply, ECF No. 66;

² As noted above, the Court construes Plaintiffs' Motion to Quash as an opposition to the Motions to Dismiss, rather than a separate motion. Accordingly, for administrative purposes, the Court DISMISSES Plaintiffs' Motion to Quash. However, the Court has considered this filing in its analysis of the pending dismissal motions.

³ Pursuant to Rule 7(F)(1) of the Local Civil Rules for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Submission, ECF No. 67. In deference to Plaintiffs' pro se status, the Court accepts Plaintiffs' filings, and has considered them in its analysis of the pending motions. Defendants' Motions to Dismiss are ripe for decision.

II. Plaintiffs' Factual Allegations

In their Second Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs allege that they own a home located at 312 South Willard Avenue in Hampton, Virginia, that suffered flood damage during Hurricane Matthew in 2016.⁴ See Second Am. Compl. at 5, ECF No. 46. Specifically, Plaintiffs allege that the storm flooded the "very low-lying back of their Home, which includes their Kitchen, Grandchild['s] Bedroom, Bathroom, and Heating Room, along with all Heating Duc[t]s, Piers and Decks of the Plaintiffs' Home." Id. Plaintiffs further allege that they were issued a Standard Flood Insurance Policy pursuant to the National Flood Insurance Program, and sought to recover under the policy for their flood-related expenses. Id. at 5, 13.

Plaintiffs identify themselves as a "Mixed-Race Couple," and indicate that they hang pictures of their after a non-moving party files a brief in opposition to an opposing party's motion, the moving party may file a reply brief within six calendar days. See E.D. Va. Loc. Civ. R. 7(F)(1). "No further briefs or written communications may be filed without first obtaining leave of Court." Id.

⁴ The Court finds that the factual allegations and legal theories in Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint are difficult to decipher.

favorite "Presidents, Senator[s], and Governors" on the walls of their home. Id. at 8, 22. Plaintiffs appear to allege that "Defendants' Inspectors," who visited Plaintiffs' home to assess the damage, disagreed with Plaintiffs' interracial relationship and political views and, as a result, failed to provide Plaintiffs with a "fair settlement" for their flood damage. Id. at 8, 22, 25.

Plaintiffs further allege that they required assistance from Defendants to complete Proof of Loss forms for their flood damage claims.⁵ Id. at 13, 15. Although Defendants assisted by providing two Proof of Loss forms for Plaintiffs' use in submitting their claims, Plaintiffs state that they "could not sign [the] documents" because they disagreed with the value references included therein. Id. at 11, 18-19, 26, 28. Specifically, Plaintiffs claim that Defendants undervalued their home on the Proof of Loss forms.⁶

⁵ As set forth in more detail herein, Plaintiffs' flood insurance policy requires them to submit a signed and sworn Proof of Loss form within a certain number of days of a covered loss. See infra Part 111.B.

⁶ Plaintiffs attached two incomplete, unsigned Proof of Loss forms to their Second Amended Complaint that Plaintiffs appear to claim were provided by Cunningham Lindsey. One form involves a claim of "Flood" loss that occurred on September 3, 2016 ("September 2016 Proof of Loss"), and lists an "ACTUAL CASH VALUE of building structures" as $45,932.90. See Sept. 2016 Proof Loss, ECF No. 46-2. The other form involves a claim of "Water/Flood" loss that occurred on October 7, 2016 ("October 2016 Proof of Loss"), and lists an "ACTUAL CASH VALUE of building structures" as $37,329.92. See Oct. 2016 Proof Loss, ECF No. 46-1.

Id. Plaintiffs further claim that Defendants (i) denied them "Emergency Assistance," which forced Plaintiffs to obtain bank loans and to use their credit cards to finance the needed repairs; and (ii) failed to provide them with "funding to replace Plaintiffs' Personal Items."⁷ Id. at 12-13, 17.

Plaintiffs do not clearly specify the causes of action that they seek to assert against Defendants. However, their Second Amended Complaint contains references to breach of contract, negligence, due process violations, discrimination, 42 U.S.C. § 1983, violations of Federal Emergency Management Agency ("FEMA") regulations, violations of the National Flood Insurance Act ("NFIA"), retaliation, violations of insurance regulations, violations of the Revised Uniform Partnership Act ("RUPA"), and violations of the McCarran-Ferguson Act. Id. at 7-10, 13, 15-16, 18-21, 24-26.

As relief, Plaintiffs ask the Court to impose a "Fair Settlement" in the amount of $17,000.00 on Claim No. 720859866664; $25,000.00 on Claim No. 720859852303; and $10,000.00 for the "Denial of Emergency Assistance." Id. at 5, 30-31. Additionally, Plaintiffs request $200,000.00 to allow them to "[e]levate their home to prevent future flooding;" $3,000.00 for "Legal Fees;" and "up to $200,000.00 in ⁷ Plaintiffs fail to clearly identify the roles allegedly played by each Defendant in this action, and appear to attribute the alleged wrongdoings to all Defendants.

Punitive Damages."⁸ Id. at 5-6, 20, 26-28, 30-31.

III. Motions to Dismiss

A. Standard of Review Under Federal Rule 12(b)(6)

Defendants seek dismissal of this action pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6) should be granted if a complaint fails to "allege facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). A Rule 12(b)(6) motion "tests the sufficiency of a complaint and 'does not resolve contests surrounding the facts, the merits of a claim, or the applicability of defenses.'" Johnson v. Portfolio Recovery Assocs., LLC, 682 F. Supp. 2d 560, 567 (E.D. Va. 2009) (quoting Republican Party of N.C. v. Martin, 980 F.2d 943, 952 {4th Cir. 1992}). The Court must accept all factual allegations contained in Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint as true, and draw all reasonable inferences in favor of Plaintiffs. Id. "Although the truth of the facts alleged is assumed, courts are not bound by the illegal conclusions drawn from the facts' and 'need not accept as true unwarranted inferences, unreasonable conclusions, or arguments.'" Id. (citations omitted). In ruling on Defendants' motions, the Court may rely upon the allegations of Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint, as well as documents attached as exhibits or incorporated therein by reference. See Simons v. Montgomery Cty. Police Officers, 762 F.2d 30, 31 (4th Cir. 1985).

B. The National Flood Insurance Program

Plaintiffs seek to recover certain flood-related expenses pursuant to a Standard Flood Insurance Policy ("SFIP") that was issued to them pursuant to the National Flood Insurance Program ("NFIP"). See Second Am. Compl. at 5, 13, ECF No. 46. The NFIP was established by Congress under the National Flood Insurance Act ("NFIA") "in order to make flood insurance available from the federal government on reasonable terms and conditions." Davis v. Nationwide Mut. Fire Ins. Co., 783 F. Supp. 2d 825, 831 (E.D. Va. 2011); see also 42 U.S.C. §§ 4001 et seq. The United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit has summarized the NFIP as follows:

Under the [NFIP], flood insurance is sold to qualified applicants either directly by FEMA or by private insurance companies known as "write-your-own" (sometimes, "WYO") companies. 44 C.F.R. § 62.23. These companies enter into a standardized agreement with FEMA that authorizes the private company to issue flood insurance in its own name and assigns the company responsibility for the "the adjustment, settlement, payment and defense of all claims arising from policies of flood insurance it issues under the Program." Id. § 62.23(d). The ultimate responsibility for paying all claims and related expenses, however, rests with FEMA. See 2 U.S.C. § 4017(a).

Woodson v. Allstate Ins. Co., 855 F.3d 628,631 (4th Cir. 2017).

The terms and conditions of the SFIP "are fixed by FEMA" and "do not vary whether the policy is marketed by FEMA or a WYO company."⁹ Moffett v. Computer Scis. Corp., 457 F. Supp. 2d 571, 574 (D. Md. 2006); see also Woodson, 855 F.3d at 631 (noting that "[t]he terms and conditions of a National Flood Insurance Policy are specified by regulation"); see also Davis, 783 F. Supp. 2d at 831 (explaining that "all policies issued under the NFIP must be issued using the terms and conditions of the Standard Flood Insurance Policy (SFIP)").

Under the SFIP, an insured must satisfy "a number of preconditions" prior to "collecting on a claim." Moffett, 457 F. Supp. 2d at 574. The precondition considered to be "the most important" is the requirement to file "a proper 'proof of loss' within 60 days of the flood loss, in which the insured must ⁹ "The SFIP is published in the Code of Federal Regulations at 44 C.F.R. Part 61, App. A(1)." Moffett v. Computer Scis. Corp., 457 F. Supp. 2d 571, 574 (D. Md. 2006); see also 44 C.F.R. pt. 61, App. A(1).

GEICO argues that its dismissal is warranted because "the Second Amended Complaint fails to provide a set of facts that establish a claim for relief against GEICO." Id. at 4. Specifically, GEICO argues:

The plaintiffs base their claim on their dissatisfaction with the handling of two flood claims. However, they make only conclusory statements that GEICO is legally responsible for the alleged improper handling of these claims. The plaintiffs have not alleged any facts which even suggest that GEICO had any responsibility for the handling of the claims or did anything or failed to do anything with respect to the processing or adjusting of the claims.

Id. at 4-5.

GEICO further argues that although Plaintiffs generally "allege that the '[D]efendants' or 'all [D]efendants' took certain actions," "[s]uch generic, bare allegations are insufficient to establish that GEICO played a role in handling the claims." Id. at 5.

With respect to the specific causes of action that Plaintiffs appear to assert in this action, GEICO argues that:

- Plaintiffs' "breach of contract claim is insufficient because it lacks facts to establish that GEICO owed any such contractual duty to the [P]laintiffs or breached any such duty;"

- Plaintiffs cannot establish a "bad faith" claim against GEICO "because as an insurance agency - not an insurer - it had no contractual obligation to pay the [P]laintiffs;"

- Plaintiffs have alleged insufficient facts to show that GEICO can be vicariously liable for the alleged wrongdoings of other Defendants based on a "principal-agent relationship" or "parent-subsidiary relationship" between GEICO and the other Defendants;

- Plaintiffs have not stated a claim against GEICO under RUPA¹⁴ because Plaintiffs allege "no facts to support an allegation that GEICO formed a partnership with either or both of the other [D]efendants, or that the other [D]efendants' acts were done in furtherance of any such partnership;"

- Plaintiffs have not stated a claim for a constitutional violation against GEICO under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 because Plaintiffs have not "demonstrate[d] facts which establish that GEICO acted under color of state law;"

- Plaintiffs cannot state a claim against GEICO for a constitutional violation because "GEICO is a private entity," and Plaintiffs have not alleged facts to establish the application of "one of the exceptions to the state action doctrine;"

- the Virginia statutes referenced by Plaintiffs in their Second Amended Complaint "do not relate to the basis of the suit;" and

- Plaintiffs cannot state a claim against GEICO under the McCarran-Ferguson Act¹⁵ because "the Act involves the

¹⁵ The McCarran-Ferguson Act "provides that federal law shall not be construed to preempt state law enacted for the purpose of regulating the business of insurance unless the federal law itself specifically relates to the business of insurance." Fenton v. Fed. Ins. Adm'r, 633 F.2d 1119, 1122 (5th Cir. 1981) (emphasis added). With respect to claims of loss covered by a SFIP issued pursuant to the NFIA, courts have explained that "the McCarran-Ferguson Act's savings clause does not preclude the application of the provisions of the [NFIA]" to such claims because relationship between state insurance regulations and federal law, (and] does not address anything regarding the handling of claims."

Id. at 6-14.

As already addressed, a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6) should be granted if a complaint fails to "allege facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). After review of Plaintiffs' Second Amended Complaint, GEICO's arguments for dismissal, and Plaintiffs' responses thereto, the Court finds that Plaintiffs have alleged facts involving GEICO that are insufficient to state any plausible claim for relief against GEICO. Accordingly, GEICO's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 54, is GRANTED.

IV. Conclusion

For the reasons set forth above, Plaintiffs' Motion to Quash, ECF No. 62, is DISMISSED; American Bankers' Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 56, is GRANTED; Cunningham Lindsey's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 58, is GRANTED; and GEICO's Motion to Dismiss, ECF No. 54, is GRANTED.

Congress, through the enactment of the NFIA, has expressly authorized FEMA "to regulate the business of flood insurance." Masoner v. First Cmty. Ins. Co., 81 F. Supp. 2d 1052, 1057 n.3 (D. Idaho 2000). Therefore, to the extent Plaintiffs intended to argue that, based on the McCarran-Ferguson Act, their flood-related claims should be governed by state law, such argument fails.

Plaintiffs may appeal this Dismissal Order by forwarding a written notice of appeal to the Clerk of the United States District Court, Newport News Division, 2400 West Avenue, Newport News, Virginia 23607. The written notice must be received by the Clerk within thirty days from the date of the entry of this Dismissal Order. If Plaintiffs wish to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal, the application to proceed in forma pauperis shall be submitted to the Clerk of the United States District Court, Newport News Division, 2400 West Avenue, Newport News, Virginia 23607.

The Clerk is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Dismissal Order to Plaintiffs and counsel for Defendants.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

THE FLOOD MITIGATION ASSISTANCE (FMA) PROGRAM WAS AUTHORIZED BY THE NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE REFORM ACT OF 1994 AND AMENDED BY THE BIGGERT-WATERS FLOOD INSURANCE REFORM ACT OF 2012. THE FMA PROGRAM PROVIDES FUNDS ON AN ANNUAL BASIS TO STATES AND LOCAL COMMUNITIES FOR PROJECTS THAT EITHER REDUCE OR ELIMINATE THE LONG-TERM RISK OF FLOOD DAMAGE TO BUILDINGS, HOMES, AS WELL AS OTHER STRUCTURES THAT ARE INSURED UNDER THE NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM (NFIP). THE FMA PROGRAM PROVIDES FEDERAL GRANT FUNDS FOR ELIGIBLE MITIGATION ACTIVITIES, SUCH AS ELEVATING AN NFIP-INSURED STRUCTURE. MITIGATED PROPERTIES MAY ALSO QUALIFY FOR REDUCED FLOOD INSURANCE RATES. AS AN INDIVIDUAL, YOU MAY NOT APPLY FOR AN FMA GRANT ON YOUR OWN, BUT YOUR LOCAL COMMUNITY OR COUNTY MAY APPLY FOR A GRANT ON YOUR BEHALF. TO OBTAIN ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON THE FMA PROGRAM AND OTHER MITIGATION GRANT PROGRAMS, PLEASE CONTACT YOUR LOCAL FLOODPLAIN MANAGER OR STATE HAZARD MITIGATION OFFICER, OR GO TO THE FEMA HAZARD MITIGATION ASSISTANCE WEBSITE AT www.fema.gov/hazard-mitigation-assistance.

Dear Jim:

Please find enclosed an Order which I believe reflects the Court's ruling in the above-referenced matter. I am also enclosing a memorandum of the agreement between Home Paramount Pest Control Companies, Inc. and Wrightway for your review.

If the Order meets with your approval, I would ask that you please obtain the endorsement of the other counsel on November 24, and file it with the Court at that time. I would also ask that you please request the Court to send me a certified copy as I will not be present on November 24.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

With kind regards, I remain

Sincerely,

TAYLOR & WALKER, P.C.

Re: Joint Demurrer
Patterson-Beggs v. Allied Brokers, Inc., et als.
Hampton Circuit Court - Part 2
Law No.: 97-36817

Dear Mrs. Beggs,

I bring you good news on this St. Patty's Day.

Judge Ford overruled the defendants joint demurrer on all points and ordered them to file responsive pleadings by April 7. I enclose a copy of the order entered this morning.

This means that we are in court on one count in contract and one count in tort, each with a for punitive damages of $100,000 and compensatory damages of $62,358.62. Once the defendants file responsive pleadings, we will proceed with discovery.

We have cleared the first big hurdle to righting this situation for you.

Hope all are well.

Sincerely,

James M. Gallagher

Dear Mr. Johnson:

This letter is written as a follow up to our phone conversation on November 13, 1996.

Nothing has been done since we met at the above referenced property on October 4, 1996.

We feel you have been given sufficient amount of time to correct the work in the crawl space at the above referenced address and call for reinspection.

Please see that the work is completed and inspected by no later than December 4, 1996 to avoid further legal action.

Respectfully,

David H. Langille
