Re: CommunityWorks North Dakota, et al. v. Larson, et al.
Supreme Court No. 20240038
Burleigh County District Court

No. 08-2023-CV-02327

Your motion to exceed the page limitation and to not paragraph number your appellant's brief was filed May 6, 2024. The Chief Justice denied the motion.

Please be advised that you will need to revise your brief to comply with the page limitation. For your information:

1. All briefs must be paragraph numbered. Reference to material in such documents must be to paragraph number, not page number.
2. Under N.D.R.App.P. 25, page breaks must separate the cover, table of contents, table of cases, and body of your briefs.
3. The rules were amended in 2022 to eliminate filing of an appendix. You submitted an appendix, which will not be permitted to file. Your brief should reference the record as provided In N.D.R.App.P. 30. If your brief references the appendix, you will need to correct the brief.

You will have until May 13, 2024 to correct your brief. You will need to submit proof of service with your corrected brief.
