Tyronne Stafford 11-20-24

October 31, 2024

In the United States Supreme Court

Now comes Plaintiff Tyronne Stafford in accordance to Rule 44. Rehearing.

I'm asking the courts/Justices to Reconsider the Denial of my Petition for Writ of Certiorari on Oct. 7th, 2024.

20-659 Dkt No. Thompson vs Clark; On April 4, 2022 the Supreme Court released a 6-3 opinion authored by Justice Kavanaugh, holding that Thompson was not required to show that he had been affirmatively exonerated. This case Arose from the 2nd Cir. of Appeals, a writ that was granted to resolve a circuit split. Despite the same factual findings my writ was Denied and I did more Jail time without seeing a Judge.

In 1994 Heck v Humphrey the Heck Bar was formed.

It is my Good Faith attempt to resolve a circuit split through the Justices of the Court. The 2nd circuit is over Connecticut, Vermont and New York. The 5th cir. is over Louisiana, Texas and Mississippi.

We Southern States are still fighting for Equal Protections under Law.

Certificate that grounds for Rehearing are limited to intervening circumstance of substantial or controlling effect.

In other Appellant court jurisdictions Thompson v. Clark doesn't question excessive force, it is about favorable termination after just 2 days in jail for child abuse.

In other Appellant courts Heck v Humphrey is applied when a conviction is made, in the circuit split it is applied with no conviction. The Due Process is applied

I Tyrese Stafford certify that this petition for rehearing is presented in good faith and not for any delay.
