RE: Motion for Extension of Time
White, et al. v. Davis, et al. (No. 24-506)
Our Clients: Lindsay & Benjamin Davis, Monica & John Lawrence, Nicole &
Jonathan Slone

Mr. Harris:

My firm and I represent Lindsay and Benjamin Davis, Monica and John Lawrence, and Nicole and Jonathan Slone in the above-referenced case. Please accept this letter as a Motion to Extend the Time to File a Brief in Opposition, pursuant to Rule 30.4. We are requesting an additional 30 days to respond to the Petitioner's petition. The current deadline to respond to the petition is December 4, 2024. We respectfully request that this deadline be extended 30 days to January 4, 2025.

I am not currently a member of the United States Supreme Court Bar, but I have applied for admission to the Bar. I have yet to receive a response to my application. I acknowledge that that the brief in opposition must be filed by a Bar member. I am requesting an extension so that my application can be processed, and so that I can become a member of the Bar prior to the deadline to file the brief in opposition. Our position is that the petition contains misstatements of fact or law which requires a response, pursuant to Rule 15.2. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Best regards,

G. Scotch Ritchey, Jr.
