Declaration of timely filing

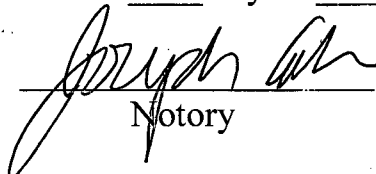

I, Bradley Berry, do declare that on December 26, 2023 two (2) packages containing my petition for writ of ceriorari concerning USCA5 No. 23-30221 and No. 23A172 was placed in the U.S. Postal Mail at 10380 Perkins Rd., Baton Rouge, La, 70810-9997. Attatched are copies of receipts showing proof of such.

Also, copies of receipts are enclosed showing that the Clerk of this Court filed stamped the two (2) packages containing my petition for writ of certiorari and previous filings, rulings, etc. One (1) of these packages (the one containing my original Petition for writ of certioari) was not returned to me by this Court. That package contains my petition for writ of certioari and I do declare that it was placed in the U.S. Postal Mail on December 26, 2023 as instructed by Justice Alito.

Signed this 2nd day of March 2024.

Declaration of timely filing

I, Bradley Berry, do declare that on the 6th day of May 2024 one (1) package containing a supplemental petition for writ of certiorari concerning USCA5 No. 23-30221 and No. 23A172 was placed in the prison mailbox for U.S. Postal Mail.

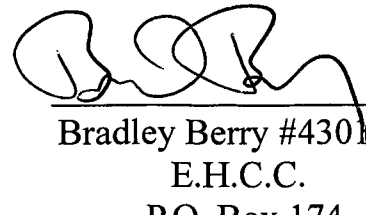

Petitioner claims that he is timely pursuant to S.Ct. Rule 14 (5) which states : “A corrected petition submitted in accordance with Rule 29.2 no more than 60 days after the date of the Clerk’s letter will be deemed timely.” Clerk’s letter was dated February 15, 2024. Petitioner’s legal work was confiscated on May 13, 2024 and he was not allowed access to it again until May 04, 2024. Thus, Petitioner claims that this resubmitted Supplemented Petition is therefore, timely.¹

The original petition was already mailed on December 26, 2023. This is a supplemental to it with same issue(s).

Also, copies of receipts are enclosed (See Appendix D) showing that the Clerk of this Court filed stamped the two (2) packages containing my petition for writ of certiorari and previous filings, rulings, etc. One (1) of these packages (the one containing my original Petition for writ of certiorari) was not returned to me by this Court. That package contains my original petition for writ of certiorari and I do declare that it was placed in the U.S. Postal Mail on December 26, 2023 as instructed by Justice Alito. This is a supplemental petition to add with it.

Signed this 6th day of May 2024.
